West Texas To Open 37th Year On October 1

Advanceed students of West Texas State have been enrolling for the fall term this week. The number has been satisfactory, in spite of the fact that the session will not open until October 1.

Opening was postponed for two weeks in an effort to get the barracks ready to receive students. Due to lack of materials not all of the apartments are completed, but most of them are in livable condition, and will be completed as soon as possible.

From all indications the enrollment will be very large for the fall term. All of the dormitories are filled to capacity, and housing facilities around Canyon are taxed to the limit.

4-H Pig Club Held Annual Show At Umbarger

The 4-H Pig Show held by the Sears Pig Club at Umbarger last Saturday was the best show of the six annual shows held so far. The gilts were of uniform size and development. The eight boys showing their pure bred gilts in this show each year are strictly beginners with no previous experience. The boys in this year's show average 12½ years of age. Mr. Brumley of Hereford, who judged the show, stated that this was one of the best gilt classes he had seen at any previous show anywhere.

The top place winner was Raymond Hinders of the Jowell community who will show his gilt at the District Show in Amarillo, Saturday, September 28, in competition with the top gilt from other counties in the district. Other boys who placed in the money at the County Show are: Landon Barrett second, Carl Frische third, Albert Fischbacher fourth and Joe Friemel fifth.

Several of the Pig Club boys will accompany County Agent W. H. Uuchurch to the District Show at Amarillo Saturday.

Dr. J. A. Hill Heads USO Drive Four Counties

Dr. J. A. Hill, president of West Texas State College of Canyon, has accepted the appointment of Governor Coke R. Stevenson, General Chairman for the next and final U. S. O. drive, to lead Randall, Potter, Oldham and Deaf Smith counties in the coming campaign, it was announced Saturday.

Texas, with a quota of $800,000 in the "See-It-Through" campaign which will continue USO activities through 1947, has been divided into six regions and 66 districts. Robert L. Anderson of Vernon is chairman of the Northwest Texas region, who will work with Dr. Hill and the county chairmen in this district.

Col. Carl L. Phinney, president of the 36th Division Association and State Campaign Chairman, commenting on the appointment of the new district officer, said: "We need the leadership of men like Dr. Hill to help Texas go over the top in this final USO drive.

"General Jonathan Wainwright has pledged his support in the Texas campaign saying that many of the USO services which helped immeasurably in keeping morale of our armed forces at a high level during the war should be continued through the present difficult transition period.

"We owe an inestimable debt to our Purple Heart veterans. The least we can do is continue the USO hospital service activities which mean so much to those still under treatment for war injuries," said Colonel Phinney.

"Nor can we forget the armies of occupation, the men still overseas striving to maintain the hard-won peace, or the young boys now in training. These men need more than ever a 'home away from home.'

"General Eisenhower has said, 'We want as much of USO as we can get as long as we can get it.' Now every Texan has the privilege of 'seeing it through.' '

Recordak Installed at First National For Check Pictures

A new system has been installed at the First National Bank for keeping a record of all checks handled by the bank in each day's business.

The system is called "Recordak" and has been installed by many of the leading banks. Pictures are taken of each check handled during the day's business. These pictures are of miniature size in order to reduce filing space. In case a check is lost, either through the mails to the clearing house, or misplaced in handling, the film identifies the missing check.

In the past it usually took one clerk's time to list and mail out checks drawn on other banks. Under this new system all out-of-town checks are photographed and prepared for shipment in an hour. The film is filed in the vault of the bank.

Correspondence at West Texas Has Increased

Begun originally as an accommodation for a few students who needed additional credit, the correspondence service of West Texas State College last year reached 442 students in 66 counties of Texas and in 14 other states.

Out of state enrollments totaled 46 students with faraway Connecticut listing two students. Oklahoma had the greatest number of out of state correspondents with 13. Farthest away county in Texas was Hidalgo, in the Rio Grande Valley. Most correspondence students from a Texas county were the 36 from Potter with Hutchinson following a close second with 30, Hall 29, Gray 24 and Wheeler 21.

The greatest number of enrollments was in government courses which are required by state law for a teaching certificate. Many of these students were out of state instructors teaching in Texas for the first time and taking government to obtain a Texas certificate.

Enrolled among the correspondence students were 60 pupils of high school classification, most of them in schools suffering a shortage of teachers or being irregular students who had work to make up during the summer. Thirty-four members of the West Texas State instructional staff took care of the 442 students.

Another phase of instruction from West Texas State, besides the Amarillo Center, Campus and correspondence work was extension classes accommodating 29 students at Borger and Amarillo.

Enrollees in extension classes and by correspondence represent an age range of 16 to 67 years. Mrs. T. V. Reeves, director of Bureau of Public Service, heads the correspondence work.

Randall Wheat Stands High in Panhandle Test

Randall county ranks high in the quality of wheat produced according to a survey recently completed by representatives of the wheat milling industry. This survey is made each year before harvest to make estimates of the location by counties, of the desirable wheat for milling, as well as, to locate the undesirable wheat varieties and mixtures of rye and wheat.

Only five counties of the thirty Panhandle and South Plains counties surveyed rank higher than Randall county in percentage of desirable milling wheat for 1946. Randall county was given a score of 88% with 6% of the acreage classed as rye mixture of rye and wheat and 6% undesirable varieties of wheat. The average score for the thirty wheat counties was 73.42%. Several of the counties are rated as having less than 70% of good milling wheat. It is thought that in future years the counties that are rated high from the standpoint of producing good milling wheat will have an advantage in the marketing of wheat for domestic milling.

It is recommended that volunteer rye be killed out before seeding wheat in order to reduce our 6% classed as rye mixtures. Varieties of wheat that rank high as milling wheat are well known to most wheat growers. The leading varieties that are classed as desirable and are recommended for both yield per acre and quality are: Tenmarq, Comanche, Westar, Turkey and Kanred. Also among the earlier varieties are Triumph (Early Danne) and Wichita. There are several other varieties that produce well and are fair in quality, such as, Blackhull. One new variety known as Pawnee which comes from Nebraska shows promise of being a good wheat for Randall county. This and some other new varieties should be tried out further before planting on an extensive scale.

The survey to determine the source of quality wheat, by counties, is directed by Mr. F. T. Dines, formerly director of the Texas Wheat Improvement Association.

Buff Fumbles Lost Game to Tech Saturday

In a game, much closer than the score indicates, the rambling Red Raiders of Texas Tech used all of six teams in succession to smother a fighting-tricky West Texas State Buffalo team 26-14 Saturday night.

The Raiders won by breaks more than by skill as they managed to recover three Buffalo fumbles at most opportune times.

The Buffaloes entered the game with a heavy line, but they were outcharged by the fighting Raiders, and Buffalo backs crashing into the forward wall of the Tech team bounced off as if made of rubber.

The only thing to do was to take to the air, and that is what the Herd did, with Willoughby throwing in all directions as the Buffs threw 19 passes, completing 9. Williams and Boyce Box were on the receiving end of the passes.

Both teams played off the "T" formation, but someone in the Tech backfield was getting their signals mixed. The Raiders were penalized at one point of the game 30 yards in less than three plays. Most frequent offense was a man in motion illegally.

The Buffs shifted to a double wingback when throwing their passes.

The entire game was a sportswriter's nightmare as Tech Coach Dell Morgan sent in team after team. He kept one entire team warming up while another team was playing.

The Buffaloes weren't out-played; they were really out-manned.

The tilt was the first game of this year's border conference. Friday night the Buffs play a non-conference game with Houston University, while the Raiders travel to San Antonio for a game with Texas A. and M.

Visiting with their mother, Mrs. Mary Burtz, last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Davis and children of the Jowell community, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burtz of Pleasantview, Mrs. W. H. Bailey, Madge and Kenneth of Amarillo, and Mrs. Ancil Shewbert of Dalhart.

Pvt. Earl Gene Peppard, who is stationed in the Army Air Corps at Denver, Colorado, recently visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Peppard.

Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Brown flew to Dallas over the week-end. Dr. Brown attended a Board and Committee meeting of the Texas State Naturopathic Association, Inc., of which he is President.

Mrs. T. I. Fulfer, Mrs. J. F. Hollis, T. H. Hollis and Tommie Hollis of Canadian and Miss Anna Belle Merit from Kansas City, Mo., were week-end guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Williams.

HENRY WALLACE OUSTED

Henry Wallace, as an American citizen, has the right to his opinions on international questions. He has a right, as a private citizen, to express his ideas. Other Americans are doing this very thing daily.

But Henry Wallace, a member of the President's Cabinet, had no right to go into the field of another department of government and make a speech which would undermine the efforts of this nation in reaching an agreement with a stubborn nation, which is seeking to gobble up all of its surrounding territory.

The President pulled two very bad, and perhaps costly boners in dealing with Wallace. In the first place he should have read the Wallace speech before it was made, and told the Secretary of Commerce that he was not running the foreign affairs of this nation. In the second place, the President should have fired Wallace as soon as the speech was made, rather than wait in a dilitory manner. This suspense suggests cowardice on the part of the President.

Whether Wallace is right or wrong, we do not know. Only time will tell. The Russian situation is so much of a mystery to all of us that few Americans can depend even upon their own thoughts in the matter. We all hope that Russian leaders are too smart to want war. Yet, Russian leadership shows the same tendency as all dictators in gobbling up all of the lands which surrounds her. She may be treating her people at home better than Hitler ever did, and may be treating the people fairly well in those countries which she is dominating. But she is dominating a lot of territory, and no one can deny this. We realize where the appeasement policy of England toward Germany led her.

Wallace is now free to continue preaching the doctrines of CIO and the Communistic interest which have relied so heavily upon him. He wants to be president. He can now fight President Truman in the open rather than behind his back, as he would have had to do by staying in the cabinet. Maybe Wallace wanted to be fired. Maybe he can spilt the Democratic party. Maybe he is just another political dud. Who knows?

A racket has developed in this country which is costing the taxpayers a huge amount of money. In Texas alone the taxpayers put up $1,800,000 last month for unemployment compensation. This is another way of gyping the government—and the money comes out of the pockets of the taxpayers. The time was when it was the smart thing to gyp the government if you could get away with it. With a tax load of almost $2,000 on the shoulders of each and every man, woman and child in the nation, it is time that every citizen become alive to the tremendous waste which is going on in the nation, and raise his voice about the continuation of such waste. There is not a town or community in the nation where people are not crying for various kinds of help. Too many people are willing to accept a dole from the government rather than accept a job. While unemployment compensation is being used by many war veterans who have been displaced by the war, and need temporary assistance, it is being abused by other veterans and by other people. When the government gives away this money to undeserving persons, it is robbing the taxpayers as a whole. Talk about needing a change in Washington—(it seems like we have heard this before)—but we certainly need a changed attitude in all branches of our government.

Just when has it become absolutely impossible for a company or and individual to reward intelligence and industry on the part of employees? That sounds like a foolish statement, but it seems that we are living in a foolish age. Hundreds of telephone workers walked off their jobs because the company promoted two workers who showed merit. Under the union rules inferior workers must be promoted in the line of seniority. The company cannot single out and reward employees for their understanding of their jobs and willingness to work. The foolish rules of all unions has branded them in the eyes of fair-minded Americans.

A big government plant in the Panhandle has been put back into operation after several months' lay-off during which time many hundred men were discharged and left for other fields. Many parts of the plant were dismantled and the stuff given away, or sold for a small part of the original cost. Now the government is at the expense of getting the plant back into operation—why? To make fertilizer which will be given to foreign nations. We shall never receive a dime for all of the fertilizer. And these nations will be back into production in a few years producing food and goods at prices far below the cost of production in the United States. That is the reason you had better hang onto some of this "soft" money and put it where you can use it to carry you through the next depression. Since Wallace promised continued prosperity to everyone—and got fired for blabbing—no one in Washington will be able to stave off the coming depression for long. Judging the rate at which we are rushing toward national bankruptcy we will wake up one of these days with a terrible headache. And this is no joke either.

We received a visit the other day from the candidate for Congress in this district or the Republican ticket. Frank O'Brien is a very likable fellow, and perhaps has some ability. But he will receive very little support in the Panhandle. He is going to make an active campaign for the office. The candidate for Governor on the Republican ticket is likewise making an active campaign. These Republican candidates will talk about all of the things which the Democrats have been griping about, but when the ballots are counted in November the Democratic majority will be about the same. The reason for this active campaign is in anticipation that the Republicans will win the presidency in 1948. The Republicans are office hungry after 16 years. Naturally they want to get back into power. The leaders who go down the line for the ticket now will have a fine chance at the political loot which falls to the winners.

We heard the other day that members of Congress who have heard about the terrible mess which has resulted from OPA activities are alarmed over the situation. Congress wrote the law which continued OPA in business. But OPA is writing the laws under which the people have to live. A citizen of Canyon called the nearest OPA office the other day for a ruling on a certain matter. Naturally the buck was passed to another office, which likewise passed the buck on. OPA has been asked to revise and bring its rulings down to date. The reply is that no one really knows which regulations have been changed, and which are yet effective. The people are supposed to know all of the rules and live under them, in spite of the fact that OPA does not know the answers.

Which is more important, domestic or foreign affairs? All Texans are proud of the fact that Senator Tom Connally is chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee. But his work takes him away from home most of the time. Therefore Texas has no representation in the Senate—if you choose to call our Pappy O'Daniel a blank. Now we are told that in the House the committee on foreign relations is trying to induce Congressman Eugene Worley to quit the agriculture committee and take a membership with foreign relations. Perhaps Mr. Worley would not be called upon to devote all of his time to foreign relations at the expense of local problems. If you have an idea on the matter, better write Mr. Worley at Amarillo while he is in the Panhandle. The Panhandle is an agricultural section and needs a strong man to represent it in Congress.

No wonder we are having so many automobile accidents on the highways. We see that in the safety lane tests more than half of the cars tested were defective and unfit for service. Two accidents on the highway near Canyon last week resulted in four cars being smashed up. The drivers of two cars were not to blame. The other two drivers were at fault. When you start down the highway you do not know who is going to run into you, or what defective car is going to crush you to death.

Before you buy any of this black market sugar for 30c to 50c per pound, better inspect the sack. It is reported that operators have been selling 100 pound sacks. The top of the sack is good sugar, and the balance of the sack is filled with white sand. Suckers!

If you have not begun to think about Christmas, better do so at once. Christmas gifts promise to be harder to get this year than ever before. And this is no attempt to kid anyone into doing their Christmas shopping early. Scarcities are on every hand, as everyone knows who has tried to buy anything.

The cold wave from the north Sunday tells us that we may expect old man winter to roll in most any time. And we are not prepared!

BOYCE HOUSE
"Gives You Texas"

Remember what Will Rogers said that it takes to make a dramatic critic? "Two seats on the aisle."

And he declared that "college is wonderful because it takes the children away from home just as they reach the arguing stage."

Will remarked of the Dionne quintuplets that "motherhood has been put on a mass production basis."

At Cameron's 100th anniversary celebration, your columnist had the honor of speaking and the pavilion stood on the spot where the immortal James Stephen Hogg and his rival, George Clarke, once spoke. The original stand yielded to the years but the new one is a duplicate.

Interesting signs: In Childress, "We trim the car—not the customer."

In Bowie, a faded sign—perhaps 40 years old—on the wall of a building, "Buggies and Wagons."

The history of Texas is not just the Alamo and San Jacinto. The story includes circuit riders, pioneer physicians, teachers of one-room schools and early-day editors, with their hand presses. Texas was built by heroes in homespun and heroines in sun-bonnet and calico.

It is a story of hard work, and sweat, and calloused hands, of danger and hardship and prayer. It is the story of people, the kind of people that Lincoln loved—the plain people, like those who "heard the Master gladly"—the great rank and file who are the hope and the strength of our nation.

NO TIME FOR BRAVERY

Out in a western town a number of lions had broken out of a circus and were headed for the open prairie. A posse was organized to hunt them down, and the leader suggested that before the chase began it might be well for the men to stop in a saloon and have a drink. This suited all the members except the town ne'er-do-well, Jason.

"Whiskey for all!" the leader yelled when the men had lined up before the bar.

"Not for me," objected Jason. "Just gimme a jigger of ginger ale."

"You'll take whiskey!" shouted the leader. "It'll give you courage."

"Heck!" rejoined Jason. "That's jest what I'm afeared of."

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY STUDIOS

215 E. 7th — Phone 4280

Specializing at this shop in Radio Permanent Waves, Mrs. Eunice Loftis, Owner of Both Shops.

These Beauty salons are done in nice soft colors with just a pleasant odor of creams, fine soaps and cleanliness. The low voices of competent operators who know how to do their work and who turn you out looking lovely are most soothing and refreshing. They are altogether conversant with hair and its way. They have a fund of information and knowledge as to what should be done with hair and what may reasonably be expected of it.

If you have any difficulty dressing your hair, feel that it is not all it should be, or if you just want to know it will be taken care of properly. Finger waving is done at the hands of an artist. Their waves confer a gracious distinction to natural or permanently waved hair. You will feel and look like a new person after one of their remarkable facials. There is nothing that makes one take a new lease on life as does a properly done facial. Try one and you will be convinced. These beauty parlors have met with universal success since their opening.

Their excellent and satisfactory service has built for them a very large and growing clientele. They are kept busy practically all the time and it is a good plan to make an appointment for the work you wish or you may be disappointed at the last minute. We wish to commend these popular beauty shops upon the remarkable high standing they have in this community. ADV.

Stronger Body Helps This New Tire
OUTWEAR PREWAR TIRES

See Us for this Extra-Safe, Extra-Trouble-Free, Extra-Mileage Tire

No sensible driver would deliberately run his tires over a rock like the one in the picture. But sometimes it can't be helped...and that's when you will be glad if you have new B.F.Goodrich passenger car tires. Built with more and stronger cords, the tire body is better engineered and 35% stronger than in wartime tires. This extra strength was needed to carry the wider, flatter tread. But in building this stronger body to hold the more durable tread, B.F.Goodrich engineers built into it greater resistance to "road shock."

Of course, supplies of tires are still limited. In spite of greatly increased production, demand is even greater. This is especially true of the B.F.Goodrich tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES. Please check your needs well in advance. Talk to us. We'll do our best to keep your car rolling until we can get new tires for you.

Carbonic Hydrotherapy Bath

Located in Amarillo at 1909 W 6th. Phone 23514.

Mrs. Ben O. Prince, Owner.

Without health all the other gifts of life are worthless. Human nature seems to be so constituted that we mortals do not realize the truth of this statement until it is too late. Health is one of those things—like a good wife—not appreciated until it is gone.

When Charles Kingsley said that Cleanliness is next to Godliness, it was worth while for more than cleanliness itself. And modern science has proved the truth of his statement. Carbonic Hydrotherapy Baths have properties which when steamed through the pores, eliminates all the poisons, that if allowed to remain in the body cause such diseases as neuritis, rheumatism, unhealthy fat, and other ailments. If you have tried others and failed, give Carbonic Hydrotherapy Baths a chance.

What is this new health science? It is nature's own way discovered by men and women, who lost faith in artificial means of curing disease and determined to turn to the better qualities supplied by nature which they believe would aid in restoring them to normal health.

Perhaps you are feeling run down generally. You don't seem to have your normal amount of energy and push. Your work drags. You can not sleep at night. If you do sleep at all, you do not feel fresh when you awake in the mornings. There are poisons in your body. Something is needed to eliminate these poisons and to give tone to your system. For this there is nothing like Carbonic Hydrotherapy Baths. They bring in play every possible means for eliminating poisons from the body. The energizing bath qualities act as a tonic. They build up strength, purify the blood and raise your general efficiency.

And what is more surprising these baths are not expensive. Most of the fine things of life really cost little money, and it seems God-given that this finest of cures should be within the reach of all.—ADV.

To those who eagerly await their new Chevrolets . . .

Here Is the Latest News about Chevrolet Deliveries

Everybody from factory to dealer is doing everything that can be done to speed deliveries to you

We have been informed by the Chevrolet Motor Division that the past month has witnessed only a slight improvement in the rate of production of new Chevrolet passenger cars. As a result, shipments of new cars to dealers for delivery are still far below the level we and the factory had hoped to attain by this time. In fact, through August, Chevrolet's output of cars in 1946 was only 22.6% of the number turned out during the corresponding period of 1941.

We know that Chevrolet is doing everything possible to step up its production totals—to ship more and more cars to us and to its thousands of other dealers throughout America . . . and we know, too, that we are assured of getting our full proportionate share of the current output and of future production gains.

Disappointing as the total figures have been—and despite the fact that Chevrolet was out of production entirely during the first three months of the year—it is nevertheless true that Chevrolet led all other manufacturers in production of passenger cars during June 1946, and has continued to maintain its lead in total production from that day to this.

We shall continue to make deliveries of new Chevrolets to our customers just as fast as we receive them; we regret delays as deeply as you do; we thank you for your friendly patience and understanding; and we promise you a new high motoring experience when you take delivery of your new Chevrolet, giving BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST!

Keep Your Present Car Alive

Meanwhile, may we suggest that you safeguard your transportation by bringing your car to us for service now and at regular intervals. Let us help you to keep it in good running condition—to maintain its performance, appearance and resale value—until the day when your new Chevrolet comes along.

By Congressman Gene Worley

We landed at Atsugi Airport which is thirty miles from Tokyo but the closest landing field. Traveling from the airfield we went through Yokohoma which was the most heavily industrialized section of Japan. Practically every industry has been completely smashed by incendiary and explosive bombs. One proof of the desperate shortage of steel during the last days of the war could be seen in the removal of steel rails across numerous Japanese bridges. The Japanese people are living in any kind of shelter they can find. General MacArthur stated there is not an inch of tillable soil in any part of Japan which is not being cultivated and in spite of these efforts a relatively large number of Japanese are still starving to death daily.

The attitude of the Japanese people themselves is hard to evaluate. We were told that during the war and due to the propaganda of the war lords the whole populace was united pratically 100% behind the war effort. Since the government controlled all means of information, the Japanese thought they were winning the war even when they were being defeated on every hand. Today, however, they seem to have learned just how badly they were fooled and are very bitter toward their former leaders. General MacArthur gave the Committee a detailed report on the success of the current occupation but it was significant to note that again a rather large number of Russians were trying to incite dissatisfaction among the great masses of Japanese laborers. It might also be interesting to point out that Russia has at least a million Japanese prisoners of war for which they have never accounted to anyone. It is assumed, of course, that these prisoners have been taken into the interior of Russia as slave labor and will never come back.

A good part of downtown Tokyo is largely untouched by the war. The Emperor's Palace surrounded by a moat was not damaged and most buildings in that area are being used by the American occupation forces. The buildings are very modern. However, the area between Tokyo and Yokohama is about as near wiped out as it can be. Hundreds of thousands of Japanese civilians met death when the war lords told them not to build bomb shelters because there was no danger of Tokyo ever being bombed by our forces. When our air raids began, it was too late for them to build any defenses and now the Japanese people are living in anything they can throw together for shelter.

The War Crimes trial was still dragging on while we were there and when I say dragging, I mean the procedure was very, very slow and tedious, largely because each statement had to be translated into several different languages. For example, the American prosecutor would read a short statement and then be compelled to wait until his statement had been translated from English into several other languages. All of those charged with war crimes were arranged in boxes similar to our jury boxes and among those present was Tojo who sat unmoved throughout the proceedings. There are eleven judges holding the trials with a representative from each of the following: India, Netherlands, Canada, Great Britain, United States, Australia, China, Russia, France, New Zealand, and the Philippines. The proceedings had been going on for months and it looks as though they will keep on for months to come before a verdict is arrived at.

Our own GIs seem to be getting along very well, as they generally do most anywhere. A good many new soldiers are in the occupation forces. The Japanese people, being usually small in stature, build their houses in proportion with beds a little too short for a six footer and doors too low to walk under without stooping, and the average Jap looks dwarfed when standing alongside one of our average sized Texans.

Next Week: Return to Washington.

Located in Amarillo at Room 210 Fisk M & P Bldg. Phone 4021.

Specializing in hair styling. Complete Beauty Service. Mrs. Ona B. Fotheringham, Manager.

The profession of the cosmetician is one of the most important and we cannot fail in this comprehensive review of our community's progress to devote space to a well-merited tribute to the excellent work performed at the Peacock Beauty Shoppe.

The management and all assistants have made a wide study of beauty culture and this has been supplemented with much actual experience which makes their service both tried and modern. Beauty culture has advanced very rapidly in the past few years and this shop has kept right abreast of the times.

The success of this shop has been marked and as a result, the reputation for good work is spreading far and wide over this section of the community. The operators have been chosen because they are excellent judges of the types of women and can tell you how your hair should be dressed to make you most attractive and what beauty aids you need for your particular complexion.

In this line of hair work the service is most complete, including shampoos, scalp treatments, marcel waving and permanent waving.

In making this review of the social and business life of Amarillo we are glad to compliment this particular concern upon their modern methods and reasonable prices. We refer their beauty service to our readers when in need of scientific and modern hair dressing. ADV.

Pyorrhea In Its Early Stages May Be Cured Is Report

Contrary to the popular belief that pyorrhea is incurable, this is only true in the most advanced stages. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, advises those persons who even suspect the presence of pyorrhea to take time by the forelock and seek an early diagnosis from their dentist so that proper treatment can be instituted while the disease is still curable.

"Early detection and proper treatment of pyorrhea represent the formula for a successful cure. This means that the dentist must have an opportunity to discover the presence of the disease at the earliest possible moment since the symptoms are often so vague that the patient is unaware of its existence," Dr. Cox said. "Regular visits to the family dentist are therefore extremely important."

The treatment of pyorrhea is not an involved procedure. In the average early case one of the main therapeutic features is the proper hygenic care of teeth and gums as outlined by any reputable dentist. Carelessness regarding mouth hygiene is usually the basic cause for the condition.

The family dentist can usually remove the cause of the trouble, Dr. Cox said, and when this has been done, intelligent routine home-care of the mouth by the patient will effect a cure in the majority of early cases.

Concern regarding pyorrhea should not be based upon the misguided notion of its incurability, according to the State Health Officer, but rather that it be discovered by the dentist when still in a curable stage.

EDGETOWN H. D. CLUB MET WITH MRS. SHARP

Mrs. J. R. Sharp entertained the Edgetown Home Demonstration Club in her home, Sept. 13. Roll call was answered with new and interesting fashion trends.

In the absence of the club president, Mrs. Fred Marshall, the vice-president, Mrs. T. M. Thurman conducted the business meeting and the general routine of business was presented. Printed form sheets were passed out to each club member and they were asked to make as correct as possible, a report on their year's work.

Achievement day is set for October 11, when Mrs. Thurman, food demonstrator, will report on her food achievement, and cooperators yearly reports. There will also be a recreational hour.

Mrs. Frank Phillips conducted the penny drill, and a report was given by the Educational Committee chairman. The meeting was then turned over to Miss Lou Ella Patterson who gave a very interesting demonstration on fitting and altering commercial dress patterns.

The hostess served dainty refreshments to about 19 club members.

On Wednesday, September 18, the program and recreational committee of the Edgetown Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Fred Marshall and made plans for Food Achievement day to be held in the home of Mrs. T. M. Thurman, October 11.

MOTHER-IN-LAW CLUB TO MEET OCTOBER 3

The Mother-in-Law Club will meet on Thursday, October 3, at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Will Myers. All members are urged to be present, as plans for the coming year will be made.

Three colored men were swapping chatter on a street corner.

"You fellows hear about Zeke's wife suin' him?" one asked.

"Not me. What'd she do it for?"

"Non-support."

"Lawsy me! What'd she get?"

"Jes' what she sued for—non-support."

"Wilkins, you've been with us two weeks now. Do you realize that in that short time you've been late five times?"

"No, sir, I didn't know, Boss. You see, I'm not one of those fellows who's always watching the clock."

"My man," she said, "can you tell me whether this is a female hippopotamus or a male hippopotamus?"

Then the worm turned. The keeper eyed the lady coldly. His tone was metallic.

"Madam," he said, "I don't see how that could interest anyone but a hippopotamus."

Treasure Hoard Found, $6,000,000 Gold Cache

SINGAPORE. — A high official said that British special agents have recovered a six million dollar cache of gold, currency and jewels—including "diamonds as big as your thumbnail"—in a fabulous East Indian theft which he described as "far bigger than the theft of the Hesse crown jewels."

He said the treasure was privately owned property appropriated by Japs during the occupation of the East Indies, later recovered by Allied authorities and then stolen.

This official said a Batavia, Java, ring composed of British, Dutch Jap nationals had been smashed, but added that several "high-ranking officers" might be involved before the investigation of the thefts is completed.

A British headquarters spokesman confirmed that an officer and a sergeant had been arrested in Batavia and said "there is considerable truth in press reports from Java."

You will not find a better place to give your children a dancing education than at the Querry Dance Studio.

We may be very fond of dancing, yet are unable to dance a step ourselves and when one is gifted with the "greatest of all" talents to dance, he or she can well be proud. Let us say right here that if you have not the talent help someone who has it to develop same by helping them to instruction with this prominent teacher.

Querry Dance Studio will help your children to bring out the grace and poise a talented dancer should have. The editors of this paper have been particularly interested in dancing development in communities throughout the country. They can safely say that they have never found a more up-to-date and modern dance Studio.

Parents of the community should indeed appreciate the high quality of dance training which their children are able to receive here. Few communities have such advantages. And it speaks well for the artistic appreciation of the people in this community that they do patronize so strongly this high quality dance studio. rns Against Spotted Fever

Health Service Urges Folks To Guard Themselves From Bite of Ticks.

WASHINGTON. — The public is appealed to by the public health service to safeguard themselves from Rocky mountain spotted fever.

Ticks, the blood-sucking insects which carry the often fatal malady, flourish during the summer months. Several cases of the disease already have been reported this year, reports the United Press.

Infected ticks have been found in 42 of the 48 states but the greatest danger is in the Rocky mountain and Eastern states. One of the most heavily infected regions is made up of Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia, where 133 fever cases were reported last year.

Public health officials estimated that one tick out of 300 is infected. The disease is so acute, however, that the public is urged to consider all ticks dangerous.

The health service said that any one exposed to ticks should be examined carefully at least once a day.

Effective Vaccines.

"Children playing in uncleared land, campers, fishermen, picnickers and people who work in tick-infested areas should have this inspection," it said.

Two effective vaccines have been developed for prevention of the fever but because of the limited supply, it is usually recommended only for persons exposed to ticks in the most heavily infected areas. The vaccines must be administered each year, preferably during April and May.

The National Institute of Health recently developed an immune rabbit serum which, according to health officials, is "probably of value" in treating infected persons. It is the first specific treatment ever developed.

The first symptoms of the malady appear from 4 to 12 days after the tick bite.

The attack usually comes on suddenly with a chill, rapid rise in temperature, headache and insomnia. After three or four days a skin rash, pinkish in color, appears.

The rabbit serum should be given as early as possible in the course of illness, preferably before the rash has been present for three days. An emergency supply of the serum is kept at the National Institute of Health at Bethesda, Md., and at the Rocky Mountain laboratory at Hamilton, Mont.

Dogs Carry Insects.

The public health service said that dogs which run at large also are dangerous because they frequently bring infected ticks into the home. The danger can be lessened by examining the dog carefully each day or having the entire family vaccinated.

If you discover a tick on yourself or your child, here is the best procedure to follow:

Remove the tick with a small forceps, eyebrow tweezers or a small piece of paper or cotton. Be careful not to crush the insect; it is possible to contact spotted fever by getting the blood of an infected tick on the skin. Paint the tick bite with an antiseptic, such as iodine. Then wash hands and forceps thoroughly or rinse them in alcohol.

There is danger of acquiring the fever if an infected tick has been attached to the skin from 6 to 8 hours or more. If it is removed before it attaches itself or within an hour or two afterwards, the danger of infection is considerably less.

After removing the tick, a careful watch must be kept on the person involved for any symptom of the fever. At the first suspicious sign, call your doctor.

Dentist Beside Patient Robbed at Point of Gun

CHICAGO.—Dr. R. A. Behnke, a dentist, was held up by a masked bandit while attending a patient in his office at 5803 W. National avenue.

The robber, about 18 or 19, took Dr. Behnke's wallet containing $175. He made no effort to rob Mrs. Anne Blair, 1444 S. 56th street, the patient who was in the chair.

A blue stocking cap pulled over his eyes and a red bandana handkerchief covering the lower part of his face, the youth burst into the office brandishing a .32 caliber revolver.

"Stick 'em up—give me your wallet," he shouted to Dr. Behnke.

The dentist handed him the wallet and he ran out.

The robber was described as six feet tall and wearing khaki trousers and a brown leather jacket.

Bumper Crop of Peaches Expected, Say Reports

WASHINGTON.—Peaches will be plentiful this season.

But the crop will be 1 per cent smaller than the all-time record crop of last year, the department of agriculture forecast.

Putting up peaches is especially important, officials said, because commercially canned fruits will not meet consumer demands next winter and spring.

The kleptomaniac picks his way through a crowd a pocket at a time.

Mr. B. M. Goff, Manager.

The Ewan W. L. Co. of Amarillo invite you to call on them and talk over the replacing or servicing of a new artificial limb.

Their artificial limbs cannot be beaten. Every part of the limb is tested and perfected to the highest degree possible. The leather sockets are fitted to the individual, thus insuring perfect fit and comfort. They are absolutely sanitary, will withstand hard wear and will last for years. They are simple of construction, light weight and very reasonable in price.

These limbs will take the place of the lost limb and give you an easy elastic foot and ankle action. If you are in need of an artificial limb get in touch with the Ewan W. L. Co. of Amarillo.

The material used in building their limbs is the best that can be procured. They are a perfect mechanical substitute in both act and appearance. In fact, no one would be able to detect that you wore an artificial limb, if purchased from the Ewan W. L. Co. of Amarillo.

They will fit you with a limb that is not only comfortable, but that will make it easy for you to walk and enable you to walk without a limp. You will at once see the superiority of their artificial limbs.

No matter where the amputation, whether above or below the knee you may be fitted perfectly and with lasting satisfaction at Ewan W. L. Co. of Amarillo. Let them fit you and know the joy and comfort and ease of a perfect mechanical limb substitute.

Here, also you may have an artificial arm fitted. The hand may simply be unscrewed and the tool inserted, when you so desire.

In this review we are pleased to recommend this firm to you. They are indeed rendering an invaluable service to the people. ADV.

WELDRITE REPAIR, SERVICE & RADIATORS

Located in Amarillo at 1216 W. 3rd. Phone 25129.

First class Welding Portable Equipment. They will go anywhere and Weld Anything Made of Metal. They also Manufacture Custom Built Trailers. They will Weld or Build Anything you Desire.

Mr. J. D. Coker, Owner.

"It's fixed, if they fix it." Cleaning, repairing and recording complete and reliable service. The manager always keeps right abreast of the times in all developments in the radiator field and on account of this line he has been very successful in radiator repairing and has fitted this establishment with the very latest equipment for the repairing and complete rebuilding of radiators.

Weldrite Repair, Service & Radiators renders an efficient service in the recoring, rebuilding and repairing of automobile radiators. Leaky radiators demand their service. The proprietor, has won a wide reputation throughout this section of Texas in the repairing of tractor radiators. Although your motor may be in perfect running order and other parts in the best of condition if you do not have proper circulation for the water your engine is soon out of commission.

Consequently the radiator expert is coming into prominence. With the advent of the radiator expert it is a simple thing to have your radiator permanently repaired in such a way that instead of damaging your car or tractor you are improving its working qualities. We would suggest that if you are having trouble with the radiator of your car or tractor, you take it to them and take advantage of their expert service.

They offer complete free inspection and you can depend upon what he advises in the matter. Leaky radiators are expensive and dangerous. They are often the cause of many expensive repairs such as pistons and cylinders scored, bearings burned out, cars completely burned up, waste of cylinder oil and gasoline. So call on them for service soon as a leak appears. ADV.

WHEELER BROS. AUTO SUPPLY

Located in Amarillo at 2906 W. 6th. Phone 20779.

Messrs. R. C. & F. M. Wheeler, Owners. Amarillo's newest Supply House. They extend an invitation to all to come in and see their large stock and get acquainted.

They will be more than pleased to show you their large stock of auto parts and take care of your wants if you need anything.

How many of us are there that realize just what such an up-to-date establishment such as the Wheeler Bros. really means to the many, many automobile owners in this day of hurry and rush. When we take our car to our favorite garage to be repaired because of some broken part the garage man tells us he can have a new part for us in a few hours.

If it were not for such up-to-date and complete stock of parts and supplies carried for our convenience by these dealers, we would be without the use of our car for weeks, and sometimes months, while the particular part came from some distant factory.

The Wheeler Bros. is a home firm with thousands of dollars invested in their stock. Many things are carried in their stock room only for the convenience of their customers, some of which they carry on their shelves for months without even one single call for that particular part.

By auto supplies we mean especially repair parts, such as bearings for all makes or models of automobiles, gaskets, pistons, rings, fan belts, universal joints and other similar auto necessities. Their stock is one of the largest in the state and anyone who has been in their place of business will have to admit that they are business men of ability.

We are more than glad to compliment Wheeler Bros. Auto Supply upon the position occupied in the industrial world and to assure the public that here they will always get courteous treatment and quick service and a square deal. ADV.

CHARM BEAUTY SHOP

Located in Amarillo at 915 Tyler in Blackstone Hotel. Phone 23813.

Complete Beauty Service. We have the only Carrior Air condition and Freezer Unit in Amarillo. Mrs. Bess Fly, Owner.

Every phase of modern beauty work is featured at this popular shop. Here only skilled operators are employed and after a visit to the Charm Beauty Shop you can be sure that you will be well-groomed for the occasion. The next time you have a permanent or any beauty work done make an appointment at this leading shop. Phone them.

All that is needed is a trial to convince the most exacting. They maintain a modern and up-to-date establishment. This is the business which we wish to call to the attention of our women readers for it is conducted solely for their benefit. This is a day and age when women, both old and young, are paying more attention to the little things which keep them from having a look beyond their years.

For many years women have been having their faces massaged and their hair taken care of by women who make it their business to know what is the best and what should be done to preserve the hair and remedy face troubles.

It is only in the last decade that the women have realized that it was necessary to have this work done for they thought that if their hair was clean that was all that was necessary. In this modern shop it is possible to have the face treated in such a way that the little wrinkles and skin troubles vanish them with the years.

In this line of hair work their service is very complete as it not only includes the hair, but all other phases of beauty work, all being accomplished according to the most approved and scientific methods. In making this review of the social and business life of this part of the country, we are glad to compliment the Charm Beauty Shop as a first class establishment. ADV.

ALFRED PETERS, CHIROPRACTOR

Located in Amarillo at 1223-A Taylor. Phone 25176.

Dr. Peters specializes in Cervical Adjustments. He is a Palmer Graduate of 1941.

Dr. Peters, who is an eminent doctor of chiropractic, is without doubt among the leading people in this profession in the country. Besides knowledge gained through years of study, he has equipped his office to meet the demand of every patient. He has restored health to hundreds of people. He accepts no cases in which he cannot benefit the patient.

If you are not in good health, you should see Dr. Peters, known all over this section as a leading chiropractor. He will prove to you beyond a question of a doubt that the primary cause of your sickness lies within your spine. He will point out the nerve or nerves that are being impoverished due to the pressure upon them caused by subluxation of the spine, why you have rheumatism, heart trouble, headaches, nervousness, neuritis or a general breakdown in health and how to overcome these diseases.

He will refer you to many people here, possibly your neighbors, whose health has been restored by his chiropractic spinal adjustments. If he does not think he can help you, he will tell you so and will not accept a case regardless of fee, unless he can conscientiously feel that cure can be obtained, or relief given.

The science of chiropractic is founded upon the principle of spinal adjustments as the spine is the index to your health and removes causes by relieving pressure on the nerves. If the spine is right, the man is right. And anyone who is not feeling in the best condition should call around and have an examination. ADV.

Mr. Elmer A. Wooten Returns To His Alma Mater on Staff

Superintendent Wooten Is New President of TSTA

* * *

SUPT. E. A. WOOTEN

For the first time in its history a graduate of Canyon Public Schools heads its staff when Elmer A. Wooten begins his duties as superintendent for the 1946-47 term.

Entering the Canyon System in grade school, Superintendent Wooten continued to attend the school until he finished the prescribed course in high school and received a diploma in 1928. He was especially interested in English, math, shop, and Commercial Law. He also played football and basketball.

Future Plans

"Now I know," states Superintendent Wooten, "the training I received was splendid preparation for me. At that time I had planned to become a motion picture exhibitor, which was a very promising and attractive career then, but later I became more interested in education, although it offered very little financial gain as compared with other fields of endeavor. Working with educational problems has become a hobby with me, rather than a job."

Mr. Wooten graduated from West Texas State College with the B. A. degree and later attended Texas University and Columbia University.

Beginning his career he served as principal and later as superintendent of the Channing Schools. For the past five years he has been superintendent of the Stratford Schools.

Services Rendered

Superintendent Wooten served as vice-president of the WTSC Ex-students organization last year, and as secretary of the Panhandle-Plains Superintendent's and Principal's Association for two years. He also taught in WTSC for two summer terms. At the present time he is president of District Nine of the Texas State Teachers' Association.

"The people of Canyon have been most cordial," continues Mr. Wooten, "and have shown me every courtesy in offering their wholehearted cooperation towards the successful operation of their schools. All of which makes me grateful and appreciative of their interest and citizenship here. Too, I have found among our student body, one of the richest degrees of citizenship of any school I have ever visited."

A CLEAN SLATE

A new year! A clean slate! Do you want to keep it that way? Roll up your sleeves and prepare to work.

This ought to be the best record that ye old Canyon High has ever made. A new superintendent, many new teachers, and a whole house full of enthusiastic students, we hope.

No one person can make a success of the work by himself. It's up to us, the student body, the faculty, and the board of trustees.

Come on! Let's all pull in double harness with a whiz!

Kirkland Teaches Science Classes

Science is coming into its own this year in Canyon High. Classes of biology and chemistry once again are being taught.

Students are demonstrating their interest by signing for the courses with a roll of 25 for chemistry and 20 for biology.

Many contests offered here-to-fore by large companies could not be entered by Canyon students because no science was being taught.

The biology class is bringing to the classroom specimens which will be of assistance in experimenting and learning more about natural organisms.

Mrs. Kirkland, instructor of the science says, "The students are doing very well so far. They seem to like both chemistry and biology, and I enjoy teaching them."

CHS Welcomes 39 Additional Scholars

Canyon High School wishes to welcome the many new students, and those who have returned from last year, which now fill the rooms and halls. New students, we hope each of you fall right in and take your place with the rest.

Faithful seniors welcome to their class Maxine Barnard, W. T.; Orville Havens, Welch; Jennie Irvine, W. T.; and Othella Pruitt, Clovis, New Mexico.

Lofty juniors greet into their ranks Aline Adams, W. T.; Paige Carruth, Vernon; Harlie Huffman, Stewart, Oklahoma; Dwight Erwin Moore, Amherst.

Those lucky sophomores, somehow, received the largest part of the new additions: 10 of 21, including: Bobby Doss, Carey; Elsie Havens, Dawson; Curtis Huffman, Stewart, Oklahoma; Joan Hutchinson, W. T.; Sarah Jone Martin, Hominy; Lou Lonnie Morton, Hereford; Clarence Smitty, Willisorburger, Kentucky; Leon Watkins, Temple; Jackie Wilson, Fox, Oklahoma; and Bruce Allen Willbanks, Moran.

Freshmen gave a hearty handshake to their Everett Garrison, Mórse; James Frank Heare, Panhandle; and Jeanine Scott of Memphis.

To add good to good, 8th graders gladly received the large addition of James Ballard, Happy; Raymond Blessen, Bushland; Geneva Gresset, W. T.; Thomas Hooper, W. T.; Lois Oleta Huffman, Stwart, Oklahoma; Betty Jean Hutchinson, W. T.; Hollis Maynard, W. T.; Thomas James Russell, W. T.; Norman Stone, W. T.; Keith Waldrop, W. T.; and James Wooten, Stratford.

Upper classmen wish to welcome the seventh graders, one and all, for they are all fine new pupils.

Grade Notes

Various activities and units of study highlight the beginning of the year's work in Canyon Grade School.

Mrs. Joe Black's first grade students are studying Mother Goose as their first unit. Their room is attractively decorated with pictures emphasizing this theme and the children are also learning songs and poetry.

A new teacher in the third grade this year is Mrs. Dan K. Usery who taught school in Canadian before moving to Canyon. This class has a new speciman in the Nature Study Department—a small snapping turtle which Mrs. Usery captured in Oklahoma. A pointed head, yellow body markings and its inability to recede into its shell are characteristics which distinguish this snapping turtle from the ordinary turtle.

Third grade students in Mrs. Goodman's class are reading pamphlets, articles, and books concerning insects in connection with their nature study. They are also bringing various types of insects which will be mounted and placed on exhibit.

Mrs. Virgil Martin from Hominy, Oklahoma, is a new teacher in the public school music department. Song books "Singing Days" and a new record player are part of the new equipment purchased during the summer and added to this department.

Members of the Classroom Teachers will hold their first meeting of the year on Tuesday, October 1, in the home of Mrs. Roscoe Davis. Cohostesses are Mrs. Andy Walsh, Mrs. Joe Black, and Mrs. Tom Brasher.

Mrs. Iverson, former instructor of electronics at Amarillo Army Air Field is now teaching social science and spelling in the sixth grade. Students are beginning a study of the Indians of North America.

Hurrying across across 4th avenue Friday night (trying to reach the stadium before the kick-off), I practically ran over a red pickup prettied up with purple and white streamers. Stopping only long enough to take a rock out of my boot, I was soon in front of the ticket window. Miss Bowman looked surprised when I yelled, "one student ticket, mam." I guess she hasn't seen ol' Cactus around school crouching under desks, reclining on the trophy case, etc., digging up news (shall we say, hmmm?)

Looking over the crowd of spectators, whom did I see together but Max Bellah and Sue Jennings. Coming up the ramp were Malcolm Gunter and Frances Standley. The game began! The pep squad cheered! The jacket which kept Janey Forester warm couldn't have been Richard Walters', could it?

When Lee Bailey hurt his arm, the girls must have had a time keeping Verna Davenport from rushing to his side. Valeta Haines and Nancy Ann Nicklaus seemed to enjoy watching players 51 and 53 especially well!

After the game I spyed a new couple for this column namely Ridings Sloan and Othella Pruitt. With them were M. E. Rhoads and Jeanette Shelnutt from W. T. Dorothy Gafford and "Uncle Willie" Shuette were seen celebrating the Eagles' victory at Carl's Cafe.

Zonelle Gregg seems unusually interested in Paige Carruth, however he was with Suzanne Stephens, Sunday—(Oh, this eternal triangle!)

Twosomes seen together Saturday night were: Don Hickman - Bobbie Jean Ford, Carole Ray Dickerson - Joanne Haines.

The eyes of Cal are upon you,
All the livelong day;
Do not think you can escape them—
You cannot get away!

School Days Can Be Golden Rule Days

"Daddy, lets get up. It's time to go to school." Shouts similar to these resounded in the homes of numerous first graders last Monday morning, Sept. 16.

When Dads arose to look at the clock, to their vexation they found the hour hands pointing to 4:00 a. m. Shushing the little ones back to sleep everything was silent until suddenly the little vice rang again, "Daddy, I know its time now."

Mother decides the way to peace is to arise. Breakfast is rushed, the children are dressed, but it is still too early. The doors to the school building will not be opened until 8:30.

After what seems hours and hours to the beginners, they, with their mothers, started toward Mrs. Collins' or Mrs. Black's rooms.

Shucks! Poor little things, they could only stay long enough to sign up.

But next day! Here they came so delighted and excited they cannot take time for anything else. School and school alone claims their interest.

When lunch time came, town students rushed home, gulped down food, and ran hurriedly back, fearing no doubt that something might happen which they would miss seeing.

Most of all here came Saturday! Of all things! No school on that day or the next, who started this staying at home for two whole days anyway?

Enrollment Lists Gains for Year

High school enrollment at the present time is up thirteen more students than that of last year making a total of 309. This includes grades seven through twelve.

Leading in numbers is the eighth grade with a total of 63 students enrolled. Following a close second is the seventh with 61 members; the sophomores rank next with an enrollment of 58. The freshmen will start off their year with 51 members while the juniors will have 41. Last, but not least, are the seniors with an enrollment of 35.

Study halls are full with one period having 135 names listed.

Seventh and eighth grade classes have well over the thirty mark in each subject.

Slide, Slippers, Slide To Beat That Bell

Who is "Enemy No. 1 of the week?" Who slicked up the floors and made everyone walk as if they were on ice?

Laverne Hinders was one of the unlucky students who made contact with the floor. Books went this way and that and everything was in confusion for a short time.

Jean Hill seemed to find it easier to stay on her feet if she walked club-footed.

Even the teachers were having a difficult time controlling their steps.

Billy Abbott used the floors as an excuse to being tardy to algebra. He said he simply couldn't make any headway in the locker room. (Who could?)

However this has a brighter side. The seventh and eighth grade boys seemed to have a gay old time using the floors for a skating rink.

Let's wait 'til the floors aren't slick (and the teachers aren't looking) before we start dashing around at a great speed!

The F. F. A. organization will meet Friday in the Ag room to organize and make plans for the following year.

The rooms were decorated with fall flowers.

Mrs. John Davis, president of Classroom Teachers, poured.

During the tea the faculty engaged in becoming better acquainted with the seven new members who are: Mr. E. A. Wooten, Mrs. Elizabeth Vernon, Mrs. K. L. Kirkland, Miss Lurline Bowman, Mrs. Dan K. Usery, Mrs. Vearl Iverson and Mrs. V. A. Martin.

Students Attend First Assembly

Assembling for the first general assembly of the 1946-47 school term, classes: senior, junior, sophomore, freshmen, eighth and seventh, met in the auditorium, Friday, September 20, at 3:30 o'clock with superintendent, E. A. Wooten, presiding.

Several announcements, concerning the general business of the school, were made by Mr. Wooten.

Coach R. D. Wheelock introduced all the football boys and told about the game with Spearman Friday night. Eagles' 1946-47 football schedules were passed out to the entire assembly.

For the remainder of the time, a pep rally was held with last year's pep leaders, Martha Jean Avent, Janey Forester, and Joanna Haines leading the group.

Wright and Abbott Gallop Away for Touchdowns

Bounding back from a sound 20-0 defeat handed them by the Muleshoe Yellowjackets, the Canyon Eagles charged headlong to beat the Spearman Lynx 39-6 Friday night at Buffalo Stadium.

Canyon won the toss and chose to receive. At promptly 8:00 o'clock before approximately 500 people the kick went into the air. It fell into the waiting arms of Gerald McDuff who advanced the pigskin 15 yards.

Wright Scores

Starting from our 45 yard line, Wright and Abbott promptly peeled off two first downs and then after a 30 yard run by Abbott, Wright carried it over on an off-tackle play. The conversion was unsuccessful with Abbott attempting to kick.

After Canyon kicked off, Spearman filled the air with passes because of their failure to make any headway by running. The Canyon squad held them for four downs and took over on the Spearman 45 yard line. Almost as quick as the ball was snapped, Abbott, with good interference, was over the goal line on a wide end run. Wright scored the extra point on a running play. This made the score 13-0.

Abbott Stops Pass

Spearman took the ball, but was stopped again when Abbott intercepted one of their frequent passes on their 35 yard line and was stopped on the mid-field stripe. That ended the first quarter.

Before the Lynx could even get their bearings, Wright had run half the length of the field for Canyon's third tally. He also scored the extra point making the score 20-0. In the closing minutes of the first half, Abbott threw a 30 yard pass to Wright for another touchdown with Spearman stopping the extra point attempt. Spearman's first bid for a touchdown was thwarted by the half whistle.

Lynx Stage Come-back

A rejuvenated Spearman team took the field after the half completing one pass and finally scoring their only touchdown. Their conversion attempt was foiled and the score stood 26-6.

That inevitable Wright-Abbott combination whipped off two more touchdowns and added one extra point to complete the scoring at 39-6.

During the fourth quarter every boy that suited out for Canyon got to play with Michael, Walters, and Prichard carrying the ball for the Eagles. The second and third string held Spearman in tow till the final whistle sounded.

Line Backs Plays

"The line looked better on the offense at times than it ever has as it opened up several times for the ball carrier. The team showed improvement from their game last week," stated Coach Wheelock.

Starting for Canyon were: Clifford Burtz, Bennie Woods, Jimmie Lindsey, Austelle Burrus James Bible, Wayne Davis, and James Guthrie on the line. In the backfield were: Billy Abbott, co-captain, Gerald McDuff, Lee Bailey, and Charles Wright, co-captain.

Messrs. H. L. McMinn and Ted Buccola, Owners, say Form that Bowling Team and Come up and Enjoy Yourself. All New Equipment.

The Peerless Lanes is a social gathering place where you meet your friends and can enjoy bowling, a pleasant game.

There are a few people who yet think that bowling is a man's game, but it has grown in popularity so rapidly in the last few years, and especially with the ladies, until today it is a favorite pastime, affording a clean, healthful, invigorating exercise, keep competition and makes one enjoy life the more.

It is played by women the country over and the town that does not have its ladies' bowling team, as well as its men's team, is behind the times. Peerless Lanes is a favorite with the bowlers in this part of the state and the ladies may go there at any time and we assure you that quietness, courtesy and a pleasant time will attend your visit.

The charges for bowling are very small and you will find well kept alleys and the best of equipment here. The games not only give you everlasting enjoyment, a sustained interest, but also offers plenty of excitement, thrills and keen competition. It is not such a complicated game to play as is generally thought by the uninitiated.

As Al Jolson, the famous blackface comedian says: "It is easy to play or I couldn't play it." Any game can be made a task by just thinking it so. For your convenience they also have a Soda Fountain where you can indulge in your favorite drink.

In this business review we wish to compliment the management of this recreation parlor for the clean, fascinating amusement they offer the people of this section. The managers are wide-awake business men and ready to sanction anything that promises public improvement. ADV.

THOMPSON'S AUTO WRECKING

Located in Amarillo at 3rd & Travis. Phone 20175.

Both new and used parts in stock for your convenience. Many dollars may be saved in parts if purchased at Thompson's Auto Wrecking.

They will not only save you money in the purchase of parts, but can save you a great deal of time as they have the parts in stock and do not need to wait for them to be ordered out of town.

As one of the largest wrecking concerns in the state, they have at all times a large supply of parts for automobiles, trucks and tractors of all makes. They will pay you a fair price for your old worn out auto or one that has been in a wreck.

Let them take it to their place of business where they start work on it. Bolts and rivets are cut; good parts, such as fenders, tops, chassis parts, engines of running condition, etc. are segregated into separate piles; and the rest piled on the scrap heap to be sold as junk.

From the segregated piles of salvaged parts one may often find just the part they want to replace old worn parts of their own car, or parts that have been damaged in an accident. Be sure to consult this company when buying parts or selling your old car. ADV.

U. S. Army Fights Nazi 'Baloney'

Occupation Troops Urged To Get Facts on Efforts To Feed Germany.

BERLIN.—So he would not be obliged to "swallow baloney fed him by complaining Germans but be able to answer back," each United States occupation soldier in Germany was urged by the army to arm himself with the facts on America's efforts to feed Germany and the world, says the Associated Press.

The army distributed among the troops an article by Dr. Carl F. Taeusch, former department of agriculture publicist who recently joined the staff of the food and agriculture branch of the military government.

"It would be helpful to the military government in Germany," said the article, which contained statistics on food in Germany, "if you would regard yourself as a good-will ambassador of the U. S. A. vested with powers of initiative in getting this story across to the German people. We have a firm policy, but it is human, and we have a record of achievement of which every American can well feel proud."

Tells the Story.

The article's distribution recalled a story in the army newspaper Stars and Stripes a few weeks ago which said that large sections of the German population were ignorant of America's food contributions and that many Germans believed the United States army was to a large extent living off the land.

The article, used by the army's information and education section in its courses for soldiers, said that in the 10 months from August, 1945, through May, 1946, American sources supplied more than 600,000 tons of food to help support the German civilian ration.

Of this, 57 per cent came from army stocks, 4 per cent from army excess subsistence, and 39 per cent from direct imports. Seventy per cent of the contribution consisted of wheat flour, cereals and biscuits. This, the article said, was 75 to 80 pounds of food for each German in the American occupied territory.

In addition, the United States, to boost German food production, supervised the importation of 87,000 tons of fertilizers, insecticides and other products for agriculture, the article added.

Anti-British Feeling.

Dr. Taeusch told the soldiers that neither "wet eyed sentiment nor a hard-boiled attitude toward the Germans" determined the military government's food policy. He said efforts first were made to "put it up to the Germans to maximize their own production and help make up the difference between home production and dietary needs."

Anti-British feeling is mounting in the Ruhr, encouraged by underground propaganda designed to split the Allies.

A senior military government officer here said the task of governing the area was becoming more difficult in view of mass criticism directed at the military government, which is being openly expressed.

Investigators discovered that anti-British feelings were fanned by the circulation of underground propaganda leaflets that implied that conditions, food and materials were more plentiful in the other zones.

Two Girls Hunt Flowers And Find Man Shot Dead

PRINCETON, N. J. — Two girls picking violets recently found the body of a former theater booking agent, shot through the head and dumped beside the Delaware and Raritan canal in nearby Lawrence township.

State police detective Claude Patterson identified him as Thomas Madeo, 40, of Brooklyn, N. Y., discharged from the army last November. A physician said he had been dead about 10 hours.

Patterson said Madeo apparently had died elsewhere and had been brought to Lawrence township. His body was found by Helen Borodeff, 15, and Janet Hawkins, 12.

Health Is Deteriorating In British Zone Cities

HERFORD, GERMANY. — A marked deterioration in the health of city dwellers in the British zone of Germany was reported in a British military government statement recently. Reports from all urban regions of the British zone, the statement said, show signs of increased loss of weight and increased hospitalization, absenteeism and lowered resistance to disease. Signs of starvation were not noticeable in rural districts, where the population suffers little from lack of food, the reports said.

Top Mechanics At Canyon Air Service For Coming Year

There's not too much to report from the airport this week, so far as flying activities go. Since this is the slack season with everything, before the college opens, every effort is being made to have all the equipment in top shape and ready to go when school opens. Canyon Air Service has two top A. and E. mechanics to keep the planes in good shape this year.

Virgil Olmstead comes to Canyon from Ponca City, Oklahoma. He instructed for the Army in Ponca City. Mr. Olmstead has had his A. and E. mechanics rating since 1922 and has had many years experience in this field.

Leo Ray is from Amarillo, and commutes every day from there to the Canyon airport. He has had his A. and E. mechanics rating for four years and has been working in that capacity for the same length of time.

With these two men to take care of the planes and equipment, and the fact that Canyon Air Service is using all 1946 model planes for training, the safety record should stay at its present high standard.

The new Bellanca left Canyon last week, and will take up a somewhat permanent residence at the Borger airport with Joel Bostick. But there should be an even newer Bellanca at Canyon Airport before long, according to George Cox. He plans to get one of the new sound-proofed models as soon a spossible.

CAR

Civil Air Regulations were modified and changed, effective July 1, 1945, and now it becomes rather difficult at times to keep up with what's new and what's old in CAR. Therefore, we'll give a few of the more pertinent regulations each week, just to remind those interested of the present Civil Air Regulations being enforced!

There have been a few changes made since the "old days" in flying, on requirements for Student Pilot Certificates, Private Pilot Certificates and Commercial Pilot Certificates.

To qualify for a Student Pilot Certificate, one must be 16 years of age, be able to read, write and speak the English language, and be a citizen of the United States. No aeronautical skill is required, and if the applicant is under 21 years of age, he must have the written consent of his parents or guardian. These certificates are usually issued just prior to solo, and they must be signed by a qualified instructor. Applicant shall also pass a third-class physical examination.

Requirements for a Private Pilot Certificate are somewhat the same, except the applicant must be 17 years of age. Then of course, some aeronautical knowledge is acquired. To qualify for a Private Certificate, one must have 10 hours dual flight given by a qualified instructor, 2 of which must be after solo, and 30 hours solo flight time. He must also pass a written examination on CAR and a flight test, besides the physical examination.

To qualify for a Commercial Pilot's rating, the applicant must be 18 years of age, pass a second class physical examination, pass a written examination on meteorology, navigation, theory of flight, and the maintenance and use of aircraft power plants in common use. The applicant shall also have logged 200 solo hours, 20 of which shall be cross-country, and pass a flight test given by a CAA examiner.

So, it's quite a bit easier now to get a Private Pilot Certificate, but still just as difficult to get a Commercial. Holders of Private and Commercial licenses also must renew their licenses every two years.

MEETINGS

Plainview is host Sunday, September 29, to Panhandle pilots for flying breakfast. The time is 8 o'clock, which means an early start for those who attend. The local fliers at Plainview are expecting 300.

Somnambulists (sleepwalkers) are known to have written letters, drawn pictures, solved intricate mathematical problems and even played musical instruments while their subconscious mind was forcing them into unconscious action.

RAINBOW DANCE PAVILION

Located in 907 NE 8th. Phone 20402. Mr. Jimmie Camble, Proprietor.

Invites all to come and enjoy an Evening's Good Entertainment. Open every night except Sunday.

At the famous Rainbow Dance Pavilion can be seen people from all over this part of Texas enjoying wonderful music played by the best String Band that money can buy, for the management has spared neither time or expense to make these beautiful dance gardens the best, and both old and young gather at this favorite amusement center to while away the hours in listening or dancing to the dreamy music that makes each moment one that will live on and on in beautiful memories.

From the earliest periods recorded in history down to the present time where we see civilization in all its complexity, dancing has been one of the accomplishments that has met with admiration and praise. Whether in religious ceremonies, on the stage, in the home or in time of war it has shown and interpreted the various phases of human expression.

This dancing pavilion is a popular social center and here under the soft rays of diffused lights you can dance while the string band plays dreamy music. All the romance of the days of long ago "When you were twenty-one" bubbles forth. As the dancers glide back and forth the hours slip away and you are lulled into the forgetfulness of trouble and care.

There is no more clean healthful exercise in the world than dancing. It gives one poise and carriage that can be acquired in no other manner. A good dancer is always admired and envied, and makes one popular, cheerful and happy.

After all what more can one ask for in this world than happiness. Rainbow Dance Pavilion is adding much to the social life of the day and we suggest it would be well for the younger people, especially, to secure a modern education in dancing as without this accomplishment one is lost from the life of the period and becomes a wall flower in the homes of the cultured. The management is to be congratulated upon the progressive efforts in bringing them to the fore and is doing a great work in the amusement of the people with the most advanced ideas of the day. ADV.

Farmers Know What a Profit Is For

As his own boss, the farmer has long since found out that a profit is not just an extra sum, above the bare cost of doing business, which can be used as you please. It is the main source of funds necessary to pay for a new silo, buy better machinery, and improve the house and the barn.

In spite of the great rise in income, farm profits are no more than necessary to keep the farm plant producing efficiently. It's the same with the iron and steel industry which makes the materials for the farmer's tools.

In 1945 steel companies had left, after meeting all expenses but before paying dividends, only a little more than one-tenth of one cent on each pound of steel sold. The profit on each dollar invested was less than five cents. Year by year since 1941, when the war started, earnings have been declining.

Although last year's output of steel was 19 per cent greater than in 1940, the last prewar year, pay rolls were nearly double but dividends were lower.

There are many misunderstandings and misrepresentations about profits. Some people forget that reasonable profits are a necessary incentive of the American system, which results in abundant low-cost farm products and abundant low-cost steel products.

It is up to those who know what profits are for, and what they can do, to see that they are not destroyed—and with them our high standard of living.

★ ★ ★

Steel mills need all the scrap iron and steel they can get. The shortage is serious. Farmers can get extra dollars and help increase steel output by sending worn-out machinery, etc., on its way to the furnaces. AMERICAN IRON AND STEEL INSTITUTE, 350 Fifth Avenue, New York 1, N. Y.

Freedom Is A Mighty Sword

We Americans can rightly be proud of the fact that we are a peace-loving people. That our aim as a nation is to strive to improve human welfare, with freedom and justice for all. Such a people is always slow to anger, tolerant and patient. But when patience is exhausted, a peace-loving people can turn its peace-time skills into weapons of fierce and righteous wrath. There is only one such way a nation could be enslaved. That would be through propaganda that misleads; through lack of knowledge, and of truth. America's greatest strength is . . . freedom of the printed word . . . to give the people truth, truth that builds freedom of thought, of word, and of vision. This great Freedom tempers the steel out of which a nation and a people can forge mighty swords.

SEVENTH NEWSPAPER WEEK

The Canyon News is observing Seventh Newspaper Week. For six years The Canyon News was the only newspaper in this region which published a special section on Newspaper week. Last year we had to forego this annual event, because of labor shortage. This year we are not devoting as much space to Newspaper Week as we would like to do, also because of labor shortage.

Thomas Jefferson once said: I would rather live in a country with newspaper and without government, than in a country with a government but without newspapers. In this chaotic era this is worth repeating and rereading.

One has only to look over this war-weary world to realize that only a few nations are blessed with a Free Press. Most intelligent people will agree that the Freedom of The Press is the capstone of the four great freedoms and that once you lose this Freedom of the Press, all other freedoms vanish.

Freedom of the Press has become a common part of our American Way of Life that we simply take it for granted and do not realize that this condition does not exist for millions of people over the globe.

Such freedom of the press is essential in our form of Democracy. The first step of any dictator is to discredit or control of the press. Our form of government is based upon a check and balance system between three major branches—the executive, legislative and judicial. The newspapers as a "Fourth Estate" was recognized years ago because of its power to serve as a watchdog of the people's rights; to keep the people informed and united for their best interests.

For the good of the public it is a healthy thing for our newspapers to have the right to criticize public officials because it is so easy for our high officials to become so surrounded by "yes" men that they lose their persepctive and assume the divine-right theory that they can do no wrong. An alert Press helps keep our political leaders' feet on the ground.

During the war the newspapers of the United States met all challenges and helped unite the people on every program essential to the winning of the war. The newspapers wholeheartedly gave their support to civilian mobilization, selective service, war bond drives, Red Cross, U. S. O., O. P. A., rationing, war production, and the development of a united front. Millions of dollars worth of space were contributed to every worthy program.

Without fanfare the newspapers have mobilized to win the peace.

Our veterans discovered what the home town newspapers mean while they were serving on the global battle fronts. They noted that where there were no newspapers there was no progress.

During this National Newspaper Week we urge you to take time out to rediscover what your newspaper means to you and your community. If you don't think it is a very close part of your life, try this simple experiment: when your paper comes just set it aside and see how long you can refrain from reading it.

This newspaper classic by Louis Taylor Merrill tells why the home town newspapers are so close to the hearts and minds of their readers:

FILES ON PARADE

In the boundless vast
Of things that were,
Out of the past
The echoes stir
And live once more
Where the presses roar.

Who says that a paper can't feel and think?
Yellowed pages, ancient ink
Volumes dusty and touched with mold—
Yet how much of the life of the town they hold.

Star-aimed faiths of the men who dreamed,
And hoped, and strove, and surmounted trials—
All set forth in the musty files—
Accounts of times when the "eagle screamed,"
Accounts of days when the town's heart bled
Solemnly mourning heroic dead,
Storied of triumph and stories of pain,
Days of sunshine and of rain,
Witty lines and commonplaces,
Old friends' half forgotten faces,
Birth for youth, and death for age—
Tidings that make folk weep or laugh
Borne in column or paragraph
Marching across the weekly page.

Who says that a paper can't feel and think
Yellowed sheets and ancient ink,
Volumes dusty and touched with mold—
Yet how much of the life of the town they hold!

Dr. Homer P. Rainey advocates that the people watch our officials. Naturally they should; no one denies this, whether in Texas, Maine, or in Washington. And then he goes on to say that Texas should be a two party state. Does this suggestion indicate that he is ready to quit the Democratic party and join up with the Republicans or Communists, or Populists, or some other party? We rather suspect that Dr. Rainey will let some one else be the political leader when it comes to "saving Texas" in another political fight. The idea expressed by Rainey is not new. In fact many of the leading editorial writers have been advocating just this thing for a long time. During the heat of the political campaign this summer the idea was advanced many times among the large number of newspapers which comes to our desk. But whether the idea will ever take hold in Texas is another thing. We have always resented the pledge that is placed on the Democratic primary ballot. We believe that if we are to be good American citizens we should go to the polls and vote for the best man, regardless of party. We are glad to see that Dr. Rainey feels the same way. It is perfectly absurd and ridiculous to say that all good candidates are restricted to the Democratic party, whether it be in Texas, or some other state. The only way for Texas to become a strong two party state is for the Democratic party to give up the idea of clamping the brass collar on the neck of every voter and defying him to vote for any one else than the Democratic nominee, regardless of how inefficient the voter may feel that the candidate really is. We hope that Dr. Rainey will do a little more campaigning for election reforms.

This meat question is becoming a political hot potato, and may lead to the defeat of a lot of Democrats who are supporting the bureaucrats in dictating the politics of the nation. No one denies that the available meat supply is large in the nation, but the producers are not going to be the goat for a bunch of brass hats who are trying to tell the people when they can or cannot eat meat. The black market is again flourishing, we are told. The whole situation stinks to high heaven. Why should the bureaucrats have the authority to tell the nation that they cannot have the foods which are available; and why should the government undertake to do such a thing when Washington knows that the black market will thrive under such conditions? What this nation needs more than anything right now is another Roosevelt—a Teddy Roosevelt, who knew how to talk the language of the people both at home and abroad.

The Democratic National Committee is deeply concerned over the temper of the people and how they will vote next month. With elections only a month away; with labor unrest on the increase; with the meat shortage increasing, the Democratic leaders have plenty to worry about. Had it not been for the political atmosphere which would have been created by raising the restrictions on meat, Washington would have lifted the ban until after election. If Truman loses control of the House in the elections next month, he will have no one to blame but himself. He is making an appeal to the nation to continue the Democratic party in power. This is right, as a Republican House could block everything that the President demands. The nation can get by for another two years, regardless of what happens in Washington, and Truman should be given a chance to work out from under an almost impossible situation which he inherited. When the voters become disgusted, most anything can happen. We shall know in another month just how disgusted they are with the administration.

The army came out with a demand for one-fourth of the available meat supply of the nation, but later backed down. Naturally all Americans wants our soldiers to have a sufficient amount of meat, but the demand of one-fourth of the available supply was utterly absurd. While no figures on the number of men under arms at this time are available, it cannot be more than a fraction of the total who were in service during the war. At best it could hardly be four million men as compared with 136 million civilians. Granted many civilians eat too much, there are millions who do not have a sufficient amount of meat to keep their bodies in proper trim for the hard work which they have to do.

The world held its breath as Stalin came out for world peace. We hope that Stalin is expressing the feeling of the Russian people. But the fear is expressed by authorities on Russian affairs that Stalin does not represent the sentiment of the Russian military leaders. Therefore, they are hoping that Stalin will live for a long time, as the Russian military men might lead the nation into war against America. The iron curtain has not been lifted by the Stalin pronouncement, as much as we are hoping that he is expressing the prevailing sentiment of the Russian people.

A few years ago when the stock market took a sudden dive, the people were upset. The recent furor on the market caused little concern outside the circle who make their living by gambling on the market. After all the market does not represent values, except in the minds of the operators. Perhaps there are not many people gambling in stocks as in normal years, or they take the attitude that anything which goes up must come down.

Strikes; strikes; strikes. We wonder what the end will be.

Harvey Cash, Pioneer of the Panhandle, Died Monday After Long Illness -- Funeral Tuesday

* * *

Harvey Cash, 68, pioneer public official and citizen of the Panhandle for more than a half century, died at his home in Canyon Monday morning following a long illness.

HARVEY CASH

* * *

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Presbyterian Church of which he had been an active member and official for more than 40 years. Rev. Robert W. Jones, pastor, paid a high tribute to the devotion of Mr. Cash, as a father and husband, as a Christian citizen, and a loyal and efficient public official.

Mr. Cash retired as City Clerk of Canyon last year, after serving for 23 years in this capacity. Failing health made it necessary for him to resign from the position in which he had so efficiently served the people of this city.

Born in Brazoria County, Texas on November 25, 1877 he was the son of U. G. and Fannie Baugh Cash. He graduated from high school in Houston, and attended Hill's Business College in Waco in the early 90's.

Mr. Cash came to the Panhandle in 1895 to work on the Yellowhouse Division of the XIT Ranch, where his uncle, Harry K. Baughn, was division foreman. He spent five years with this ranch, the old headquarters of which were about 25 miles southwest of Littlefield.

In 1900 Mr. Cash moved to Dimmitt and became the county and district clerk of what was then known as the Tri-counties, which included Castro county, with Lamb and Bailey counties attached. He served as clerk for six years, and during that period founded the first abstract business in Castro county, a firm which he sold in 1908 to Mark Cowsert and E. S. Ireland, and which is still operated in Dimmitt by Mr. Cowsert.

After selling his abstract office, Mr. Cash opened a general mercantile business in Dimmitt which he operated until 1920, when he moved to Canyon in order to give his children the benefit of a college education. All of the children have degrees from West Texas State.

Mr. Cash was married to Miss Hester Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barclay T. Bell, pioneer residents of Castro county, on February 18, 1903. Mrs. Bell is still living, now past 90, making her home in Hereford with another daughter, Mrs. E. S. Ireland. Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Cash: Fannie, now Mrs. O. J. Laas of Plainview; Lilian, who died at the age of 23 years at Sherman; Harvey, Jr., of Houston; Dorothy, now Mrs. R. A. Dodson of Shamrock; and Rosa, now Mrs. O. P. Cowart of Hereford. Mr. Cash was a devoted husband and a wonderful father, and his wife and children will cherish his memory in the years to come.

Besides his wife and children, Mr. Cash leaves six grandchildren, and four sisters: Mrs. J. W. Alexander of Hereford, Mrs. D. C. Laird of Kilgore, Mrs. Ann Holman of Hereford, and Mrs. Horace Baird of Hereford, together with several nephews and nieces.

Mr. Cash was a member of the Masonic lodge and a charter member of the Lodge of Dimmitt.

Mr. Cash united with the Presbyterian Church at Dimmitt in 1910, and was elected ruling elder. Throughout his residence in Canyon he has been a devoted member of the Church, and served as an official and regular attendance as long as his health permitted.

C. R. Herrington Died at Gordon-Cummings Home

Funeral services were held on Saturday, September 7, in Amarillo for C. R. Herrington. Mr. Herrington had been a resident of Amarillo for a number of years, and his wife is the former Alexa Gordon-Cummings of Canyon.

His sudden death occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gordon-Cummings. At the time of his death, Mr. Herrington was employed as an engineer at Southwestern Public Service Co. in Amarillo. He was a charter member of the San Jacinto Methodist Church, and was an active Mason and Shriner.

Dr. Harold G. Cook, president of McMurry College, officiated at the funeral.

Surviving, besides his wife, is one daughter, Phyllis, and a brother and sister.

BOYCE HOUSE
"Gives You Texas"

Many years ago—in the Fall of 1919—your columnist, then the young editor of a small paper, received a letter from William Jennings Bryan, for whom I had had a lifelong admiration. The letter was in pen and ink and was in reply to an inquiry as to whether the Great Commoner would seek the presidential nomination in 1920. Because it was a personal letter, it was not printed—but it might be of a little interest now, so many years afterward:

"My dear Mr. House: Your kind letter at hand. I assure you that I most sincerely appreciate your generous words. I have not thought it wise to discuss publicly the question which you ask and I will ask you to regard this letter as confidential. No condition that I can now forsee would justify me in being a candidate next year.

"I see no such demand as would make acceptance seem a duty. Besides, there is work to be done for the party and the country—work which I can do, which seems to me to be more important than running for any office. I could not do it if I were waiting for a nomination. Again thanking you for your confidence, I am, Very truly yours, W. J. Bryan."

Rambling over Texas: The white, two-story Southern homes in Crockett . . . and El Camino Real (King's Highway), blazed in 1690.

Near Jacksonville, a lumber mill with window panes of tinted glass.

Jefferson White, Cameron editor, has 14,000 Indian relics.

The highway south of Sweetwater presents a series of hills, each a little higher than the other, making driving something like the exhiliration of riding a roller coaster. The countryside is clad in shaggy cedars and the road is lined with sagebrush. Far away is a wall of mountains, misty blue.

The last echo of the August primaries has hardly died away, with the promise on all sides that there would be no increased taxes and already a proposal is advanced to raise the State gasoline tax 2 cents a gallon. The advocate of this increase of millions of dollars in taxes to be paid by the people of Texas is Senator G. C. Morris of Greenville.

The Paris peace conference has been averaging 1 3-4 parties a night and peace is still far away. What can we expect of delegates from 1 3-4 hangovers?

Washington Newsletter

By Congressman Gene Worley

The Japanese Capitol building was well built and very impressive. Their legislative body similar to our Congress is called the Diet and has an upper and lower house. We visited the two chambers which were furnished in most lavish style and were far more elaborate than any legislative chamber anywhere. It is unfortunate that they could not have had better leadership than that which carried them into the attack against the United States.

Upon our arrival at Tokyo, we received a cable from the Speaker of the House advising us that some very important legislation was coming up sooner than originally scheduled, and asking that we return to Washington immediately. Consequently, the next day, we left Tokyo in a boiling sun with a temperature of 109 degrees in the shade and about 140 idegrees inside the airplane before we gained altitude. While we didn't set a trans-Pacific air speed record on our way back we did come close to it. If you've ever thrown a flat stone across a pond and watch it skip, that's about the way we returned. In leaving Tokyo we flew over the top of mighty Fujiyama on Wednesday and were supposed to be in Washington on Saturday. When we took off, none of us thought it was quite possible to make it so fast but we flew from Tokyo to Guam to Kwajalein to Honolulu to San Francisco, then non-stop to Washington—only four stops—and made it in 62 hours total time or 51 hours actual flying time. Most of the weather was good and we only stopped to refuel or change planes and covered the nine thousand miles without getting lost but once, which was a night flight from Guam to Kwajalein. About daylight on that flight the navigator said a certain island should be just to the right of us but it wasn't there. We finally made a landfall at Eniwetok from which we got new bearings and proceeded without further difficulty into Kwajalein, and arrived in Washington nearly a day earlier than scheduled. While the trip was necessarily a hurried one, it did provide the Committee with much valuable information in dealing intelligently with some of the future international questions scheduled to come before Congress at the next and succeeding sessions. And I deeply hope these reports have been informative and helpful too. The world has shrunk so fast the past few years and the development of new and fantastic war weapons has been so rapid that, for our own welfare and protection, we cannot know too much about what goes on in the rest of the world.

Messrs. Ray Parks and Van Allm, Owners.

In the face of discouraging prophecies by well known men, Neon Lights are known today throughout the civilized world, their present stage of perfection was the result of years of persistent effort which finally overcame a series of disheartening failures.

The advent of Neon lighting revolutionized the sign industry, and similarly, the modern factories, necessitated by a rapidly increasing demand superseded the cluttered old-fashioned sign shops. Over most of the world there are factories busily engaged creating Neon Electric Displays. These are the backbone of the Neon organization.

On every hand are heard comments on the attractiveness of Neon Electric Display which are available in many colors of non-glaring beautiful colored lighting which is sure to attract the eye. These signs are offered on a cash or monthly rental service which includes complete maintenance. They are a true economy as they burn from 20% to 25% of equivalent current consumed by an electric sign making it possible to burn them 24 hours a day.

HILLS MATTRESS FACTORY

Located in Amarillo at 1717 E. 10th. Phone 21474.

Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Hill, Owners invites all to come in and get acquainted.

Without mattresses we cannot rest, and without rest we cannot work. Hence, it is the aim of this institution to give the people of our community mattresses that at once give comfort and rest and restore health and energy.

They have a modern plant which is clean and sanitary and the most modern equipped. Their mattresses are made by the modern process of knitting the long staple cotton fibres permanently into soft mattresses, such that give complete relaxation to the body as is required in this complex and busy life of today.

If you would have complete rest, buy mattresses made by Hill Mattress Factory. Besides the best of materials, they employ the most skilled workmen, paying them excellent wages, and as a result their products are as good as, and better than, those of outside manufacture.

You are patronizing a local community enterprise when you buy the mattresses of Hill Mattress Factory. They are progressive and by striving to serve the public at all times they have well merited their prosperity.

The owners of the business are public spirited people who are always interested in the growth and advancement of the community.

They can make over your old mattresses and make them as good as new in many cases by renovating the materials.

In this progressive review it is a pleasure to refer Hill Matress Factory to our many readers, and we desire to compliment the company on the very efficient service they are rendering. ADV.

Mr. C. E. Yates, Owner.

The manager is a thoroughly competent man and knows the grocery business from A to Z. They have the latest refrigerating system and the place is kept in a most sanitary manner. "Their Groceries and Meats are better."

It is a 20th Century service station where 101 articles of every description can be had for the household. When you buy it at this grocery you save money, and why? For the well known fact that a grocery store operates on a smaller margin of profit than any other business. And for this reason they must turn their stock five or more times a year thus insuring a fresh stock of goods at all times of the year.

They have equipped the store with the latest of scientific refrigerating devices and thus are prepared for the proper handling of all provisions, so that when they arrive at your place they are in the very best of condition.

"Quality, courtesy and service" are the watchwords of this establishment and no matter what you may desire, you will find, whether you go in or call over the telephone you will receive a courteous and intelligent answer to any question you may ask.

Mr. E. C. Quigley, Jr., Manager.

Our industrial edition would not be complete without mention of the prominent business operation of Cudahy Hog Market and their extensive operation in the way of conducting a market for the purchase of live hogs.

Through the years they have been doing business they have always been most fair and honest in their negotiations and afford the farmers a valuable market for their live hogs. It is very important that the farmers should have a market that is up-to-the-standard and this section is fortunate in having such extensive dealers.

It takes men to handle a large volume of business, to be able to get the right selling markets and be able to pay the best net proceeds. These facts attract trade to the section and make it a better place in which to live and transact business.

A wife, married to a hypnitist, brought her husband to court charging him with cruelty.

"Your worship," she complained, "my husband is the meanest man in the world; he hypnotized me into thinking I was a canary and gave me birdseed for breakfast, dinner and supper."

The magistrate gasped "Is this true?"

The husband appeared very distraught: "I beg your pardon," he said, "but I don't think that was mean."

The magistrate's eyes popped. "You don't think that was mean?"

The husband shook his head. "No," he asserted. "I could have hypnotized her into thinking she was a sparrow and let her find her own food."

Buffaloes To Meet New Mexico University Saturday Night

Hilltop Stadium in Albuquerque will be the scene for Friday night's battle between the victory-hungry West Texas State Buffaloes and the powerful Lobos of New Mexico University. Coach Windy Nicklaus' Buffaloes will not only be out to win their first victory but will be out to avenge a 0-13 spanking handed them last year by the Willis Barnes coached eleven.

The local gridiron team, not because they were outplayed but rather because of a severe case of fumble-ytis, dropped their first two games of the season 14-26 and 12-14 to Texas Tech and the University of Houston respectively.

The Lobos had to score in the closing minutes of play to trim a surprising squad of Lumberjacks from Flagstaff Teachers in their initial game of the season. This was a conference game and gives them an edge over West Texas State since the Buff-Tech game was also a conference encounter.

Saturday night the New Mexico crew was soundly trounced by the Utes of Utah University 56-14. This defeat however is to be taken lightly since Utah is considered a big power in the Big Seven this year.

Oversupply of Veterans

Coach Barnes of New Mexico has a team chuck full of veterans and has many of his 1941 and '42 team back with him. Advance notices from the Albuquerque school give special notice to ends Virgil Bottler and Rusty Taylor, All-Star guard Larry Fellicetti, and tackle Lynn Burnette. Carrying the ball this year, and in a seemingly amiable fashion, are backs Don Rumley, Rudy Krall and Lavon McDonald. A number of players from last year's Sun Bowl winners are also back.

Coach Nicklaus and Coach Van Meter will probably spend most of this week teaching the West Texas boys to hold on to the pigskin since this has been the determining factor in both games this season.

In the game with the Houston Cougars, the Buffaloes piled up lopsided figures in the statistic columns but the lads from the coast hopped on two breaks to chalk up their fourteen points.

Line-up Indefinite

Because this is a conference game, Coach Nicklaus will probably run every kind of play in the football book in an endeavor to bring a victory back to this Panhandle school. To this date no definite starting line-up has been named to take the field Friday night. Several combinations have been tried in a vain attempt to find the missing cog in what should be a powerful club but so far that cog has not been found.

Probable starting lineup for the Lobos will be as follows: B. Taylor, left end; Hankins, left tackle; Hildebrandt, left guard; Doar, center; Fellicetti, right guard; Burnett, right tackle; Frogge, right end; Brock or McDonald, quarterback; Rumley, left Half; Gibson or Szepanski, right half; and Krall, fullback.

"My wife hates the telephone company, but I can't say that I approve of her method of getting even with the company."

"No? Why not?"

"She uses our car to knock down their poles."

Houston Eleven Topples Buffs

Alert Cougars Capitalize On Fumbles To Gain Win; Buffaloes Outplay Rival

In a game filled with fumbles and penalties, the West Texas State Buffaloes Friday night dropped their second heart-breaking game in a row. This time the loss was to the red-and-white clad Cougars from the University of Houston who played heads-up ball in the pinches to eke out a 14-12 victory.

Approximately 3,000 football fans saw West Texas score in the opening minute of play only to be overtaken by the alert and fighting Houston team coached by Jewel Wallace. Both teams had suffered initial game losses and were playing with a victory-wanted spirit.

At 8 o'clock Noel Cudd, giant Buffalo tackle, sent the opening kickoff booming down to the Cougar goal line. Gwin, Houston back, returned the ball to his own 15 where he fumbled and West Texas recovered. On the first play from scrimmage, Burl Pruitt skirted right end for the 13 yards and a touchdown. Melton's attempt at conversion was blocked. Score, West Texas 6, Houston 0.

Cougars Gain

Several punts were exchanged in the second quarter with the Cougars getting the best gains. One punt mid-way in the second period set the Buffaloes back to their own seven-yard line where Willoughby fumbled and an aggressive Houston lad recovered it. West Texas State bowed their backs and held the onslaughts for three downs but on the fourth try Krus plunged through for a touchdown. Hawkins made a successful conversion. Score, West Texas 6, Houston 7.

West Texas received the kick-off and with very little time remaining passed down inside the Houston 24 only to have a Willoughby thrown pass intercepted. A few seconds later the half ended.

A rejuvenated Cougar team took the field and kicked-off to begin the third quarter. LaFollette received the kick on his 30 and returned to his 38 where he fumbled and Houston again recovered. Gwin moved the ball down to the two yard line where seconds later Manichia powered through the line to score. Hawkins again scored to give Houston a 14-6 lead.

Fumbled Again

Once again Coach Windy Nicklaus' Buffaloes marched down to the Houston 15, and once again fumbled.

In the fourth quarter West Texas took to the air and traveled down to the Cougar five where one of one of their passes was intercepted. Houston was forced to punt and West Texas brought the ball back to the 10 yard line where Burl Pruitt executed a beautiful quick-opening play and scored standing up. Melton again failed to convert and that was the ball game.

WHY ARE WHEATLAND PLOWS

Disc bearings are self-lubricating —take no end-thrust.

Special "ocean liner type" end-thrust bearing assembly takes all end-thrust.
SC

THE MOST POPULAR?

Even the women folks prefer MM Wheatland Disc Plows because there's no criticism of the job done. They simply do the job just right.

There is an MM Wheatland to enable you to cut the cost of preparing your seed bed as much as 50% over ordinary methods. 26 inch discs and 10 inch spacing between discs give it wide cut and light draft.

- Plows and Discs IN ONE OPERATION—yet very light in draft—seeder or drill attachment available.
- Mixes stubble and vines thoroughly with the soil—plows from 3 to 9 inches deep.
- Helps prevent air pockets and soil blowing.
- Can be used to build terraces the economical way.

Although the degree of concavity is about the same as in ordinary 20 inch discs, the depth of concavity is 4 inches as compared to only 2¾ inches. As a result MM Wheatland Plows turn the soil much better. Extra large discs mean less wear on the disc bearings as discs make fewer revolutions per mile. Discs are specially heat-strengthened steel, highly polished to scour better. RIGID FRAME: This frame is now famous as the one that won't "twist", "wear", or "give"—thanks to its BRIDGE TRUSSED construction and the extra-heavy-duty casting and steel plates that connect the heavy axles to the rigid frame. Hand and powerlift models—See your MM dealer for sizes and when available—they're worth waiting for.

FREEDOM OF RELIGION

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE ARE NOT DUMB

We Americans have never, in the dictionary sense, been dumb. We are extremely vocal. When we don't like something, we say so. We tell our neighbor; we wire our Congressman and; probably most significant, we write a letter to our newspaper—a good many million of us every year.

We are not dumb. We have never lost the use of our vocal chords. We know we're in the driver's seat, we know we run the country. We're awfully cranky and when something displeases us, we're quick to tell the world. That's why we get things done.

In the good old U. S. A. slang sense, we Americans aren't dumb either. We know that the right to express ourselves didn't just happen. It was fought for. It was paid for in tears and in blood and we have guarded it jealously through the years.

We are not dumb. We know that our precious freedoms and liberties, the right to think, vote, travel, earn and worship as we please, are safe only so long as we Americans are free to read, write and publish what we please, through our newspapers. We know that of all our freedoms, the freedom of the press is the most important. We know that it guards every other liberty and that without it we would live in darkness, a prey to any demogogue's whim.

We Americans are not dumb. As long as we value our rights and our liberties we shall steadfastly resist any attempt by private interests or public authority to encroach upon our free newspapers. For the right to read is the right to know—to be informed. Because all our other rights depend on it, it is the one right most worth defending.

STATE CAFE

Located in Amarillo at 512 Taylor. Phone 5585.

Mr. Clifford and Mrs. Virginia Hurd, Owners say, why go elsewhere? Come to the State Cafe where you will not be cheated.

A good place to eat and a place where both local and traveling people can well satisfy their demands in the matter of obtaining good foods. The menu consists of not only the prime necessities of life, but many inviting and tempting delicacies of chicken and steak dinners are offered to satisfy the tastes of the most fastidious.

In traveling over the country you will find nothing in greater profusion than poor eating places. This is why it is indeed refreshing to find such an up-to-date establishment as this. It is unsurpassed by anything at any place in surroundings or accommodations of service. When Clifford and Virginia went into business it was with the idea that a modern inn would be appreciated by the local and traveling public. That this principle was well accepted is proved by the success they have attained.

Here you will find home cooked food, wholesome and deliciously appetizing. The service is equally satisfactory whether your order is large or small and you will be made to feel that your trade is desired and appreciated by the management.

We are pleased in this review to compliment the State Cafe on tohe high character of the establishment, which is rendering a much needed and highly appreciated service to the public. We recommend this place to all our readers. ADV.

Plans Are Underway For Big Homecoming for West Texas

Already at work planning a homecoming to recapture some of the festive spirit so apparent in those gala pre-war occasions, the alumni activities committee, headed by Dr. Lee Johnson, has outlined tentative plans for Saturday, October 26.

Highlights of the day's events include a barbecue at noon, free for ex-students, football game between the mighty Buffs and the Aggies of New Mexico A. & M. during the afternoon, and for evening entertainment, three simultaneous dances to be staged in the Girls' Gym, in Cousins ballroom and a third place yet to be designated.

Admission price to any or all of the dances has been set at 50 cents per person.

"Of course we had homecoming last year," asserts Pres. J. A. Hill, "but this is our first featured homecoming since the end of the war."

"Because so many ex-students were not yet home last fall, this will be the first opportunity to honor our many men and women who served in the conflict. That is the reason we want to make it a particularly memorable affair."

Traditionally, WT homecomings center about the western theme, and this year students will begin creating the old-west atmosphere a week in advance by wearing their cow-boy or cow-girl regalia.

To start the series of attractions, students will participate in a bonfire pep rally Friday night, followed by an all-school dance at Cousins Hall—one that will last until midnight. Although the juke box will furnish music for this dance, Band Director M. J. Newman will arrange for swing bands to play for the three Saturday night. Boone McClure is in charge of the three affairs.

By 9 o'clock Saturday morning, ex-students will arrive and register until time for an assembly of welcome at about 10 or 10:30 o'clock.

All during the day, faculty members will be stationed at the various lounges over the campus to serve tea and visit with the returning students.

The Class of 1925 has declared this their special day for reunion. Other classes, groups and clubs will be asked to schedule their meetings of reunion either at 1:30 or 5:30.

Coach Gus Miller and Milton Morris are responsible for arrangements in connection with the barbecue.

Capt. Charles Francis, on terminal leave, visited the campus and friends in Canyon early in September. He and Mrs. Francis will live in Austin this year, where he will continue his graduate work and be an assistant in the university department of physics.

J. V. Bostick of San Jose, Calif., son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Machen, underwent a serious operation recently, but is now reported doing fine and is at his home in San Jose.

Funeral services were held in Snyder, Saturday, September 21, for Mrs. J. W. Wemken. Mrs. Wemken was the mother of Mrs. L. H. Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schultz and son have returned to Canyon after a few weeks visit in Clarks, Neb. with Mr. Schultz's family.

Atomic bombs threaten the peace of the world. There is talk around Washington that politicians are toying with the idea of reversing a time-worn slogan to read: "Now is the time for all good parties to come to the aid of man."

JEFF'S BEAUTY SHOP

Located in Amarillo at 613 Adams. Phone 7558.

Mrs. Edinburg, Owner, says, call Collect for Appointments.

Every phase of modern beauty work is featured at this popular shop. Here only skilled operators are employed and after a visit to the Jeff's Beauty Shop you can be sure that you will be well-groomed for the occasion. The next time you have a permanent or any beauty work done make an appointment at this leading shop. Phone them.

All that is needed is a trial to convince the most exacting. They maintain a modern and up-to-date establishment. This is the business which we wish to call to the attention of our women readers for it is conducted solely for their benefit. This is a day and age when women, both old and young, are paying more attention to the little things which keep them from having a look beyond their years.

For many years women have been having their faces massaged and their hair taken care of by women who make it their business to know what is the best and what should be done to preserve the hair and remedy face troubles.

It is only in the last decade that the women have realized that it was necessary to have this work done for they thought that if their hair was clean that was all that was necessary. In this modern shop it is possible to have the face treated in such a way that the little wrinkles and skin troubles vanish them with the years.

In this line of hair work their service is very complete as it not only includes the hair, but all other phases of beauty work, all being accomplished according to the most approved and scientific methods. In making this review of the social and business life of this part of the country, we are glad to compliment Jeff's Beauty Shop as a first class establishment. ADV.

PROP WASH

W. T. Again Offers Flying As Part Of Fall Curriculum

After weeks of sweating it out, the doors are finally open for veterans to include flying in their college course. The way it's going to work, is roughly this:—the Vets Administration and the college are working together so that the veteran can take flight instruction through the college, under the GI Bill, and get college credit. However, the veteran has to have the right kind of major to include flying in his course of study, and this is determined by the Vets Administration and must have final approval at the Registrar's office. The flight training will be over a period of one semester, and will include 35 hours flight time and 30 hours of ground school. At the end of this time, students will be eligible for a Private License. Freshmen will not be accepted as yet.

Now this doesn't mean that Canyon Air Service has gotten the GI Flying School directly through the Vets Administration. This means that only veterans in college who need the flight training in connection with their college studies, will be eligible. Of course, George Cox hopes to get the regular GI Flying School for all veterans before too long, but for the present, that aspect of the situation is still out on the well known limb! But there is a definite possibility that non-college veterans will be eligible before too long.

Non-veteran students can of course take flying at their own expense and receive college credit. Those interested can get full information at the airport or at the college.

A new Globe Swift will arrive at Canyon Airport very soon now, if plans go through as promised. George Cox is the dealer in this area and the Globe Swift company in Ft. Worth has promised him a dealer's plane. This little plane is one of the nicer small airplanes now in production. It's all metal, and has a 125 h. p. engine.

The first model put out has an 85 h. p. engine, but it is pretty well underpowered, and the 125 h. p. has proved much more successful. It cruises at around 140 mph, has a service ceiling of 16,000 feet, carries 30 gallons of gas, and has a cruising range of 600 miles. It's landing speed is 48 mph. So, when it does arrive, everyone is welcome to go out and give it a personal inspection.

A new Culver V was in the other day from Dallas. H. E. Mills had brought it up for demonstration. Reports on performance were not too encouraging.

George Cox took the Aeronca Chief to Guymon, Okla., last week to deliver a prop. Claude Goldsmith went along too, and stayed in Guymon for a few days.

Those of you who frequent the airport will be seeing a lot of G. W. Webb, airport manager. Mr. and Mrs. Webb live in the little house at the airport, and they're quite pleased with the location. They came to Canyon in 1926, and since that time, Mr. Webb has worked in and around Canyon. He spent 27 years working for the railroad, and is 70 years old now. But don't think his age keeps him from being everywhere at once around the airport, and strictly seeing that things are running smooth. Yes, Mr. Webb is a fellow well worth knowing.

Rev. Joe Findley New Lions Prexy

REV. JOE FINDLEY

At the Lion's Club meeting last Thursday Dr. Conrad W. Freed resigned as president of the club. Dr. Freed is moving from Canyon to Montgomery, Ala., where he will teach in the Maxwell Airfield School. He was given a "lifetime" fountain pen with his name engraved upon it as a parting gift from the club.

Rev. Joe Findley, who was first vice-president of the club under "Lion Boss" Freed's regime, was made the new president of the club. Lion Boss Findley was so bewildered by his sudden and unexpected rise in power that he was not prepared to make a statement to the press. Lion Van Meter, former second vice president of the club became the new first vice president. Lion Haggard, former third vice president became second vice president; and at a director's meeting next Monday night a new third vice president will be elected.

Young Children Should Be Guarded Against Winter

Young children may suffer as much from winter illnesses as they do from those commonly known as "summer complaints," in the opinion of Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, and his advice to parents as the winter season approaches is to guard babies and young children against these winter health hazards.

Influenza, tonsillitis, pneumonia, bronchitis, and asthma are included among those diseases which may be dangerous winter illnesses among young children since they affect the respiratory or breathing system. Such disease as pneumonia may develop from a neglected cold, they may follow as an after-effect of measles or whooping cough, or they may occur suddenly and with very little warning. These diseases of the respiratory system are more prevalent in winter than in summer and are much more difficult to combat than digestive ailments such as summer complaint.

"These winter diseases are particularly dangerous to babies and young children," Dr. Cox stated. "Nearly all of them are spread through the secretions from the nose and mouth. Children not in vigorous health are naturally more susceptible to these complaints and the first line of defense," Dr. Cox cautioned, "is to strengthen the powers of resistance against disease; the second is to keep them under medical supervision and the third is to make sure they avoid contact with others who have coughs, colds, or fevers.

West Texas State Gets Under Way After Postponing Opening

The time has come, WT has said,
To talk of many things:
Of books and dorms and eight o'clocks—

And an unfinished construction program, and generally overcrowded conditions, and numerous other problems facing West Texas State College as, already delayed two weeks, it begins registration for the fall term.

Therefore, the following facts have been gathered in an effort to round up the more available information concerning the state of the union—or, more appropriately, the state of the school.

Despite the difficulties so evident in this period of post-war adjustment, Pres. J. A. Hill says that the outlook looks bright for a very successful year once initial troulbes can be eliminated.

With between four and five hundred students already registered in advance, college officials predict a record enrollment. Registration proceedings (conducted in Room 10 of the Administration Building), began this morning for upperclassmen while freshmen and students who have not previously attended West Texas take psychological and English placement examinations in the main auditorium.

Classes Start Thursday

Thursday, class bells will ring and students will report for the first sessions of the 1946-47 scholastic year.

Even now, work on all housing units has not been finished, but authorities have arranged adequate facilities to care for students until more permanent quarters can be provided.

Conner Hall, new state-maintained dormitory for veterans, will not be ready until later. However, barracks imported from the prisoner of war camp at Hereford will provide, in addition to apartments for 76 couples, places for about 250 veterans. Dining rooms at Terrill Hall have been discontinued to clear space for more sleeping quarters.

Randall Complete

With the opening of a new wing, Randall Hall can now furnish accommodations for 236 girls. Total dormitory capacity has risen to over a thousand by use of additional beds

Changes in faculty, in health service and the campus eating arrangements are discussed in other stories throughout the paper.

"Although we have received a large number of new texts," explains Mrs. L. A. Cooper, manager of the Book Store," we are in a few cases unable to fill orders for textbooks. However, the situation should be remedied soon with the arrival of books we have had ordered for some time."

Farm Bureau to Hold District Meet on Oct. 8

The Texas Farm Bureau Federation will hold a District meeting in Amarillo, October 8. The meeting will be at the Herring Hotel starting at 10 a. m. The Randall County Farm Bureau is expected to be well represented since the Randall county unit is one of the largest in the State. Every farmer in Randall county is invited to attend the District meeting whether a member of the Farm Bureau or not according to A. E. Wise, County Chairman.

J. Walter Hammond, President of the State organization, will be in charge of the meeting at Amarillo. Mr. Hammond will discuss current National and State issues which affect farmers and livestock producers.

Farm Bureau officials of the Panhandle counties are at present concerned about such things as the State tax on tractor gasoline, ceiling prices on farm products and decontrol of prices as soon as possible. Farm leaders are concerned with the prices and trends in 1946 as compared to the prices and trends in 1919. The major farm organizations are out to do all possible to prevent the price drops which occurred in 1920 following the high prices of 1919.

Officers Assume New Positions

1946-'47 Class Leaders Elected September 25

RIGHT BEHIND THE EAGLES

How about having a hundred pep leaders? Well, maybe it wouldn't work so well, but how about our yelling as we would with a hundred leaders? If we will, let's just give our best and back the team!

Now that they have won two out of three games we should be especially proud of each and every effort put forth to place Canyon High on the sports map.

Football players need encouragement when they are winning and more so when they are lagging behind a little, so remember, we can be cheering them all along.

Lack of enthusiasm can cause a team to lose. With enough backing a team like ours can go to the top. The football boys are eager and willing, so the rest is up to us. Are we willing? Are we behind them?

Come on, students, let's go.

—By R. F.

Barbara McDougal, a student in the eighth grade, underwent an appendectomy Monday morning and went home last Sunday.

Last Thursday, Mr. M. D. Shepherd tried to arrouse the seventh grades appreciation for music by playing recorded music.

Fan My Brow, Plead Lunchroom Workers

A fan! A fan! A slice of meat for a fan! Please somebody, won't you lend our good, nice, industrious lunchroom workers an electric fan? They prepare such delicious food for us!

Doesn't this menu which we had last Tuesday just make one's mouth water?

Meat Loaf
Cabbage Slaw Irish Potatoes
Bread Butter
Banana Custard Milk

Really, we're not joking, we do want to beg or borrow a fan, and we will give some one his dinner if he'll let us borrow one.

"We have exceptional lunchroom facilities" says Superintendent Wooten, "An experienced manager, and capable assistants prepare the lunches. The food is chosen with extreme care and prepared most appetizingly. Generous helpings of nourishing victuals with milk ought to enable students to do better than average school work."

Howdy Folks,

Yep, this is your old friend Cal reportin' to you on the latest scandal of Old Canyon High.

Why, just the other day when I snuck down the aisle in the theater I spied Richard Walters and Janey Forester a settin' thar talkin' in the show.

Then I boosted my way down to the Canyon Drug and who should I see but Weedon Young and Leon Watkins adrinkin' cokes.

Ya know, Mary Browning sure has been gettin' around lately! Why, every day in speech someone comes in there and drags her out to answer a long distance telephone call. I hear tell its a handsome chap from Kansas, eh Mary?

Friday night when I wuz hitchhikin' out west of town I saw Claudine Beavers and Lawrence Folk zoom by on their way to Hereford to see a movie.

Billie Bonds has at last found the answer to her problem. When Ray McDonald appeared in the study hall Friday morning, her heart started flutterin' again.

Betty Jo Ponder has struck up quite a case with one of the W. T. boys, anyway she has been seen a lot with Benny Jo Cupell.

While I was snoopin' around out to the ball game Saturday night I spied Suzanne Stephenson and Paige Carruth havin' the time of their life, although everyone else was about to freeze they seemed to be plenty warm. Oh, yes, wonder why Suzanne named her dog-pin she wears on her coat, Paige?

A group of the freshmen have sure been havin' lots of fun takin' pictures every Sunday evening.

Have you heard the latest dope on Joan Bullard and John Lill, Frankie Sneed and Harold J. Prichard? Well, they've sure been gettin' around lately.

Well, about that there good lookin' gent that was out in the hall makin' eyes and courtin' Mrs. Vernon Monday at noon while she was on hall duty. Gals, stop your swooning for that was her wittle hubbie.Shuckins!

Senior Personality

Orville Havens, who has recently moved to Canyon from Tahoka, is listed on the Senior roster; he is not too tall, just five feet and seven inches; wears seven and one-half size shoes; hair is brown; has brown eyes; and the cutest dimple in the middle of his chin. He is seventeen years old; has a pleasing personality, and the whole sum of twenty-eight teeth, which he likes to use very much on eating his favorite food, ice cream.

In school he does very good work. His favorite subject is Agriculture. He is an active member of the FFA.

He answered, "Don't like any of 'em," when asked who his favorite actress was.

Seniors Knight Freshies

By Geneva McDougal

"Boy, am I glad this day is over! Just wait 'til I'm a senior! Will I ever pour it on those freshmen!" These remarks could be heard wherever there was a freshman Friday night. Not that they didn't like being initiated or anything like that. It's just that it is a little strenuous on some of the weaker ones (?).

Friday morning, the freshman girls were a "beautiful sight" with their clothes on backward and inside out, hair in braids on one side, and in curls on the other, pancake makeup, rouge, mascara, lipstick, and every other kind of makeup under the sun, on one side of the face (aaaghhh) and the other side supposedly clean. Supposedly, I say. As the girls tripped lightly up the stairs barefooted and backward (and I do mean tripped) with at least three seniors' books, they let out long, low whistles and shouts of "hubba, hubba" at all senior girls. They also had to drop the books, get their lowly selves to their knees, and say "Allah, allah" to the senior boys. Force of habit, you know. Noon finally rolled around, and all the freshman beauties were compelled to crawl up the school steps backwards and do the swinging, swaying hula dance for a very appreciative audience. Some songs were sung and speeches given by a few of the very luckiest freshman girls.

The fate of the huskier (?) half of the freshman class lay in the hands of the innocent seniors. The freshman boys very generously offered to wear their clothes inside out backward, and while the seniors hated to accept this offer, they did. But only to make the youngsters happy -??). Barefootedness was also in style with the boys, while they lugged books up and down the hallways. At noon, it seems one of the boys had a little difficulty getting his car started. The senior boys, being the gentlemen they are, were very anxious to help him (as they wanted a ride to town) so they made the freshmen push the car for one and a half blocks, and then turned the ignition on. The unworthy boys had to wade through several mud holes, only to please themselves, of course.

Now that the freshmen (those who lived) are full fledged members of the high school, we wish to tell them that we are glad to have them, and we hope they are happy to be in our Canyon High School.

Vernon Instructs English Courses

Instructor in Canyon High School of first and second year English and Speech I, is Mrs. Elisabeth Vernon, who is a graduate of West Texas State College of the class of 1940. She is a member of Who's Who and Alpha Psi Omega, national honor societies.

Mrs. Vernon originally hails from Borger where she graduated from high school and returned to teach for the past three years. During her school life there she was especially interested in dramatics.

While teaching, she coached participants of one-act plays and declaimers who won honors in Interscholastic League work.

She is married to Mr. James J. Vernon, a former navy man, who is now attending school at West Texas State College.

"I'm especially impressed with the friendliness of the faculty and student body of Canyon High," states Mrs. Vernon, "and I'm expecting a year of exceptionally good work."

8-2 Section Tilts 8-1 For Victory

Downing the challenging 8-1 students, the 8-2 division came out of a football game, played on the school field, with a 6-0 victory.

The sides tossed a coin for the goals with 8-2 winning the kick-off. 8-1 received the ball on their own 30-yard line. After making three tries at the line and failing to gain they punted to the opponents' 40-yard line. Returning the punt to the 8-1's 20, a pass, Barrett to Hooper, resulted in the only score of the game. Try for extra point failed.

For the remainder of the game both sides zig-zagged back and forth with each side failing to gain the advantage.

Outstanding players for 8-2 were: Landon Barrett, Thomas Hooper, and Norman Stone; for 8-1: Richard Payne, Robert McClendon, Ronnie Hillier, and Tommie Gooch.

Coach R. D. Wheelock permitted the boys to use the practice for their game as weekly physical education.

Jeanbey Appears Here Wednesday

"Picking Up Sticks" will be the subject of Edward L. Jeanbey, traveler and lecturer, who will be here Wednesday, October 9, 2:00 p. m. at Canyon High School auditorium, to tell tales on famous people of native and Indian tribes.

In this exhibition he will show canes from the lost tribe of the Incas of South America known as the "Father of Kittens." Another cane known as the Vavagusa Beer Stick from the Genyas Colony in British East Africa, containing long drinking straws used by the natives in drinking out of a common bowl, will be exhibited. The High Priests Stick with the god Nandayara carved on the handle is from the Caingwas of the Chaco plains of South America.

All the students are invited and also the parents.

Jeanbey will also show other canes from the northwest part of the country, the state of Oregon, which he got from an old tribe of Indians. One from our own southwest, Hopi Indians, known as the crooked stick to represent lightning to bring rain for their crops.

By this lecture, Jeanbey hopes that others will develop ideas of their own which will make their lives as rich in this kind of experience as his.

Canyon Tramples Griders 48-12

Wright, Abbott, Walters Make Touchdowns

Looking forward to the first conference game of the season with the Dimmitt Bobcats in Dimmitt, Saturday, Oct. 6, at 3:00, the Eagles are undergoing a week of hard practice. Fresh from a 48-12 stampede over the Price Cardinals, the squad is out for another win.

Wright Scores

In the game Saturday night at Buffalo Stadium with the Cardinals, Abbott kicked off with Price receiving, but failing to gain. An Eagle fumble with a Cardinal recovery, gave the visitors a chance for a tally. When once again they failed to make the necessary yardage, Wright galloped off-tackle for the Eagles' first score. Abbott carried the ball for the extra point.

Abbott Kicks

After a near 50-yard kick by Abbott, the Cardinals brought the ball to their 17 yard line where they were held on downs, the kick going out of bounds. With one more play and a second set-back, Wright ran off-tackle once again for the Eagles' second marker, with Abbott scoring the extra point.

When the Cardinals fumbled shortly before the half, the Eagles recovered, and the familiar combination, Wright and Abbott accounted, with the help of a stonewall line, for two more tallies. A the half, the score board showed 35-0 for the Eagles.

Second String Plays

Canyon's second string started after the half with Walters receiving the kick. He was stopped on the 26. After a see-sawing of downs, Meade Michael intercepted a Cardinal pass, and Walters carried the ball over for another counter. Practically every man on the team got to play.

In the final period Price scored, but the kick was blocked. After another show of power by the Cardinals and another marker to their credit, the game ended with Wright and Abbott adding a last tally to end the game 48-12.

FFA Boys Select Burtz, President

Clifford Burtz is the new president of the Future Farmers for the forthcoming year as elected Thursday, September 26. Other officers are: vice-president, Wayne Davis; second vice - president, Benny Woods; secretary, James Bible, treasurer, James Inman; reporter, Jones Hales; sentinel, Eugene Morris; parliamentarian, Harold Prichard; historian, Jimmy Dietz. Three of these held positions in last year's organization, Wayne Davis was treasurer, James Bible historian and James Inman reporter.

Ray McDonald and Blake Zachry, last year's president and vice-president were at the meeting and presided during the election and helped the new officers learn their duties.

Mr. Devin said, "Their attendance to the meeting showed Ray's and Blake's loyalty to the club, and I appreciate their interest."

Ray and Blake will continue to be members of the club.

The boys have been selling soft drinks and popcorn at all the football games. Money made in this way will be used for the Parent-Son banquet and various other socials they will have.

"With a membership of forty-nine, this is the largest chapter in the club's history. The boys all seem interested and are investigating the various possibilities of making money this year," states Mr. Devin.

Two new students who enrolled here Friday, are Lorillo Devin, a junior, and her sister, Mary Ruth Devin, a freshman. They hail from Panhandle High School.

A Fun and Food Fest in the social hall will entertain students whose preference is the Christian Church, with Bill A. Miller as student chairman. The church is located at 5th Avenue and 18th Street.

Students and faculty interested in the Episcopal Church, 4th Avenue at 17th Street, are invited to the Little House of Fellowship, behind the church for an evening of getting acquainted, games and refreshments. Mr. George E. Clark will show some pictures to the group.

Presbyterians Arrange Party

A get-acquainted social with games and refreshments is in store at the Presbyterian church, 5th Avenue at 14th Street. Lee Mann, Norma Lantz and Frances Harp have planned the activities to take place in Fellowship Hall.

The Church of Christ, 3rd Avenue at 17th Street, is sponsoring a reception at the home of George W. Cox, 1905 4th Avenue.

Lonnie Johnson Auto Wrecking

Located in Amarillo at 200 Hayden. Phone 29043.

This is a used parts house for any make or model. They will pay you a fair price for that wrecked or burned car.

They will be more than pleased to show you their large stock of auto parts and take care of your wants if you need anything.

They will not only save you money in the purchase of parts, but you can save a great deal of time as they have the parts in stock and you do not need to wait for them to be ordered out of town. If it were not for such an up-to-date and complete stock carried for your convenience, you would be without the use of your car for weeks and sometimes months while the particular part came from some distant factory.

They are famous for the service they render. All their employees are familiar with automobiles and trucks and you will find them courteous and accommodating. Their stock is one of the largest in the state and anyone who has been in their place of business will have to admit that they are business men of ability. We recommend this firm to our friends and readers for bargains in used parts for automobiles.

Many do not realize the value of an auto parts concern to the community. They are one of the indispensible factors whose activities aid in no little measure the progress and development.

We are more than glad to compliment Lonnie Johnson Auto Wrecking upon the position occupied in the industrial world and to assure the public that here they will always get courteous treatment and quick service and a square deal. ADV.

DOC'S CAFE

Located in Amarillo at 308 E. 3rd. Phone 25293.

Mr. Leonard Shroff, Owner says, come in and get acquainted with him and his good food at the same time.

This is one of the leading dining places to be found and is kept thoroughly abreast of the times. They draw trade not only from Amarillo but the entire trade territory for miles around.

A popular place at all hours for people from all over this part of the state, they welcome everyone and make them feel right at home. Everything that is good to eat is to be found here, all home cooking.

In making this review the onward progress of the community due mention should not be omitted of the Doc's Cafe in the social life of the community as it is a great aid in the promotion of the best there is in the life of the period.

Equipped with the very best fixtures and everything about the place has that air of superiority that makes it known as a concern that speaks for itself. The reason for the steady growth in the volume of business we believe, is due to the fact that only excellent service has always been featured in this concern. Any dissatisfaction that may arise with any guest is always cheerfully adjusted and in our opinion this accounts for the enviable reputation this place enjoys.

Such an institution as this adds to the reputation of the community for being alive and wide awake. It brings favorable comment not only from the local but also the traveling public and assists in making this a more progressive section of one of the greatest states in the union More such institutions such as Doc's Cafe is the aim of every community which wishes to keep its place in the march of progress.
